UNIVERSITY ACADEMIC PROFILE

ADVANCING KNOWLEDGE. TRANSFORMING LIVES.

Michigan State University is defining what it means to be a land-grant university in the 21st century. From our roots as the nation's pioneer land-grant institution, we have a long tradition of using the research and knowledge that is developed here to create practical solutions that make a difference for individuals and communities. From Michigan to Malawi, MSU continues its proud tradition of advancing knowledge and transforming lives. A few highlights of our accomplishments are listed here. For more information, please visit www.msu.edu.

A LEADING INTERNATIONAL PARTNER

- One of the three largest undergraduate study abroad programs in the nation, with 2,787 students studying abroad in 2005-06; 220 programs in more than 65 countries on all continents.
- MSU was the largest recipient of USAID funding for international projects in the last half of the 21st century.
- MSU's African Studies Center has been nationally ranked as one of the leading and most comprehensive centers of its kind in the United States.
- MSU aided in the reconstruction of the Rwandan economy by sending experts to educate farmers on how to set up — and sustain — cooperatives that grow premium coffee, now a market staple in Rwanda.
- Professor Gretchen Birbeck and colleagues in the International Neurologic and Psychiatric Epidemiology Program study neurologic and psychiatric disorders in developing countries where clinical specialists and researchers who can conduct studies to understand the high rates of these problems are almost nonexistent.

RESEARCH THAT IMPROVES LIVES

- MSU was selected by the U.S. Department of Energy to take part in a new $125 million bioenergy initiative. MSU will partner with the University of Wisconsin-Madison in establishing the Great Lakes Bioenergy Research Center, one of three in the nation, which will use basic science research aimed at solving some of the most complex problems in converting natural materials to energy.
- MSU's breakthrough discoveries include Cisplatin and Carboplatin, two of the world's leading anti-cancer drugs.
- MSU has one of the top nutritional immunology programs in the country, a cutting-edge discipline studying how the food eaten affects a person's immune system.

- MSU is one of only four universities across the country asked by the Carnegie Annenberg, Rockefeller and Ford foundations to take part in the "Teachers for a New Era" initiative to develop state-of-the-art programs in K-12 teacher education.
- MSU's Diagnostic Center for Population and Animal Health is one of the country's premier veterinary diagnostic laboratories, conducting more than 1.2 million diagnostic tests per year.

BUILDING STRONGER COMMUNITIES

- MSU Extension has a presence in all 83 counties in Michigan, with more than 700 full-time MSU employees, bringing knowledge-based educational programs to the people of Michigan.
- MSU is one of only five U.S. universities to join the Chicago Climate Exchange in efforts to reduce their carbon emissions.
- Technology developed by an MSU Michigan Agricultural Experiment Station researcher has been licensed to produce new vaccines for various strains of flu, including avian flu.
- The W.K. Kellogg Foundation has awarded a $1.37 million, multiyear grant to MSU as part of an initiative to address childhood nutrition and fitness, vibrant communities, and healthful local food production in Michigan.
- More than 30,000 children and their families participate in educational programs at Wharton Center each season, including Jazz Kats: Jazz for Kids, which uses jazz to teach information in subject matters such as math, social studies, science and music.

DRIVING THE STATE'S ECONOMY

- MSU contributes more than $3 billion in economic activity in the state of Michigan (fiscal year 2005).
- The expansion of MSU's College of Human Medicine into West Michigan will draw students and faculty to the area, in addition to the economic development that occurs around biotechnical research and medical school development.
- In 2006, seven MSU faculty members started their own high-tech companies in Michigan, bringing the total to at least 28 over the past four years.
- Since 2004, the MSU Product Center for Agriculture and Natural Resources helped nearly 500 individuals with product ideas and has assisted with the launch of 50 ventures in Michigan's agricultural industry.
- MSU chemistry professor Marcos Dantus' start-up company, Okemos-based BioPhotonic Solutions, Inc., is developing smart laser technology that can aid in monitoring diseases and enhancing metabolic studies of drug interactions.

STUDENT-ATHLETE SUPPORT SERVICES

Academic, personal, and professional support are essential to college success. At MSU, Student-Athlete Support Services helps student-athletes reach their full potential.

Our philosophy is to offer an academic support program that will assist all student-athletes with the transition to college and integrate with the total university. This all-encompassing support continues throughout the student-athlete's collegiate career, until the day he or she receives a diploma, lands a job, or enters graduate school. Academic counseling, career exploration, planning and placement, and academic assistance through tutorial programs are just some of the ways we encourage student success.

Being proactive rather than reactive, our staff does not wait for an academic crisis to occur. We gather important background information and build an academic profile on each student-athlete, assessing his or her needs in advance. We also stay informed on the daily progress of each student-athlete.

Freshmen and transfer student-athletes encounter a major transition when making the switch from high school or community college to a university. These students, while adjusting to their new routines, receive extra attention and support.

College is not easy. But with hard work and dedication from both the student-athlete and the support staff, the student-athlete can have a successful college experience.

There are a total of 13 staff members to assist in and work with the following:

- Priority registration
- Track academic progress
- Monitor grades
- Conduct weekly meetings with freshmen
- Conduct eligibility meetings
- Provide learning specialists services

The Clara Bell Smith Academic Center is named after the mother of Steve Smith, a former MSU basketball All-American who played 14 seasons in the National Basketball Association. Smith donated $2.5 million to the $7.5 million facility, the largest gift ever by a professional athlete to any college or university.

THE CLARA BELL SMITH ACADEMIC CENTER

The center is a 31,000-square-foot academic facility that was funded by private donations.

Amenities include:

- Structured study area
- Quiet study areas
- Computerized check-in system
- 10 individual meeting rooms
- Multicultural Center
- Two staffed computer labs
- 60 computers
- Four classrooms
- Wireless Internet Access
- 210-seat multimedia auditorium

"I encourage every student-athlete to take advantage of the resources provided by the Clara Bell Smith Student-Athlete Academic Center. It doesn't matter if you're a 4.0 student or someone battling to maintain eligibility – there are programs offered that can benefit everyone in the classroom. Each student-athlete has different needs and the academic support staff will help you identify and address those specific needs. Personally, I benefited from the programs available to assist in time management. In addition, the tutorial and professional development programs are outstanding."

— Drew Stanton, Detroit Lions
NFL rookie

STUDENT-ATHLETE SUPPORT SERVICES

"The Clara Bell Smith Student-Athlete Academic Center is a first-class facility that provides all of the tools and resources necessary for academic success. For me, however, it's the people inside that building that are the true difference makers. To the academic support staff at Michigan State, you're more than just a jersey number or a student I.D. number. They take a personal interest in you; help keep you focused and motivated; and track your progress in each and every class. If you're willing to apply yourself, you'll earn a degree during your four- or five-year playing career at Michigan State."

— T.J. Duckett, Detroit Lions
Six-year NFL veteran

The goal of the Learning Enhancement & Academic Program (LEAP) is to provide comprehensive services for Michigan State University student-athletes. LEAP houses the entire tutorial program while providing a wide range of learning services, including learning strategy interventions, mentor programming, content-based tutorials, assistive technology and structured study experiences.

MULTICULTURAL PROGRAMS

Our mission is to provide student-athletes with inclusive cultural and diversity experiences that enhance their professional growth and develop their leadership skills. To collaborate with campus resources that elevate the academic success and campus involvement of student-athletes. To create a positive partnership with the community, facilitate learning and provide comprehensive programming.

SPORTS MEDICINE

Injuries are a part of sports - they come with the touchdowns and big tackles. Dealing with athletic injuries falls into the capable hands of the MSU Sports Medicine staff.

Located in the Duffy Daugherty Football Building, the Sports Medicine staff is comprised of a team of surgeons, doctors, certified athletic trainers and a cast of students who aspire to be the athletic trainers of the future. In its 2002 College Football Preview, Sports Illustrated rated the Duffy Daugherty training room as one of the nation's ultimate facilities.

The philosophy of the Sports Medicine staff is two-fold: to help prevent injuries as much as possible through effective preventative programs, and to facilitate an effective rehabilitation program after an injury. In all cases, the ultimate well-being of each individual is considered the top priority.

The 6,000-square-foot training room features a hydrotherapy station and a treadmill with suspension equipment, which allows student-athletes to rehab with reduced stress on their joints. The training room also includes cold-pool spas and various other therapy equipment and modalities.

SKANDALARIS FOOTBALL OPERATIONS CENTER

In August 2008, the Spartans will occupy one of the nation's finest football facilities. A $12 million expansion and renovation project for the Duffy Daugherty Football Building began on June 1, 2007. MSU alumni Robert and Julie Skandalaris of Bloomfield Hills, Mich., donated $5 million as the lead gift for the facility expansion and upgrade. The Skandalaris Football Operations Center will include new team, staff and position meeting rooms, coaches' offices and a hall of history. The 14-month construction project is funded by private gifts.

In addition, the construction plans feature an expanded weight room that will increase in size from 9,000 to 15,000-square feet.

Former Spartan head coach George Perles and his wife Sally have contributed $500,000 for the construction of a plaza outside the Duffy Daugherty Football Building, located at the corner of Chestnut Road and Shaw Lane.

DUFFY DAUGHERTY FOOTBALL BUILDING

In 2006, the grass practice fields behind the Duffy Daugherty Football Building were completely renovated to better mimic the Kentucky bluegrass playing surface in Spartan Stadium. In addition, a 50-yard infill field, manufactured by General Sports Turf (Rochester, Mich.), was installed at the southwest corner of the practice fields.

In June 2002, AstroPlay, a new concept in synthetic turf, was installed in the indoor practice facility. The $310,000 surface is grass-like from concept to performance. Unlike previous generations of artificial turf, AstroPlay is not abrasive. The grass-like, polyethylene fiber matrix is filled with rubber granules.

The Duffy Daugherty Football Building underwent its first major overhaul prior to the 1997 football season. The construction added 17,000-square-feet to the complex, more than doubling the facility's original size from its opening in 1979. Financing for the $5 million construction and renovation project was provided entirely by Stadium Club seating in Spartan Stadium.

The first facility improvement included a 9,000-square-foot weight room, a 6,000-square-foot training room and new locker rooms.

In its 2002 College Football Preview, Sports Illustrated featured Michigan State's training room as one of the nation's ultimate facilities. The training room features a hydrotherapy station and a treadmill with suspension equipment, which allows student-athletes to rehab with reduced stress on their joints. The training room also includes cold-pool spas and various other therapy equipment and modalities.

The locker room houses wooden lockers so large that they had to be assembled on site. The Duffy Daugherty Football Building also includes a players' lounge, complete with a pool table and big-screen television.

SPARTAN TRAINING: PREPARING TO WIN

"Total Conditioning" best describes the ultimate goal of the Spartan Strength and Conditioning Program under the direction of Ken Mannie and Tommy Hoke. It begins with the challenging and aggressive 4th Quarter Program in the winter and continues through the heat of the summer with the Bottom Line Program.

The year-round approach adhered to by the Spartans addresses all of the key areas of physical development and enhanced performance: speed and power improvement, increased overall strength, flexibility, agility, cardio-respiratory conditioning and endurance, skill specificity, and nutritional counseling and monitoring.

Michigan State football players train in a highly-organized, structured, disciplined, and intense environment with a high priority placed on steady progression. The weight room atmosphere emphasizes a championship work ethic, proper instruction and supervision, and safe, proven exercise techniques.

The 9,000-square-foot Spartan Weight Room, located in the Duffy Daugherty Football Building, houses the very best strength and conditioning equipment on the market. Soon to be expanded to close to 17,000-square feet, the already outstanding weight room will be one of the elite training facilities in the nation after the renovation.

Attention also is continually given to the controllable factors in creating and maintaining a healthy lifestyle. Ongoing educational efforts, guidance, and counseling to assist the players with informed decision making during their football careers and throughout their adult lives are staples in the Michigan State Spartan Football Program.

No. 1? MSU, That's Who!

Spartans Maul The Irish, 12-3

MSU likely to face UCLA in Rose Bowl—Story on page 2C

BY JACK HERRY
SOUTH BEND, Ind. (UPI)—It's off to the sun, still No. 1 for Michigan State's superb Spartans.

The Big Ten champions crushed Notre Dame defensively, 12-3, Saturday in the big one, the one billed as the Game of the Year.

What must be the best Spartan team in history turned the feared Irish ground attack into a retreat, picking the Irish with a minus 12 yards rushing and held the desperation passing game to a puny 24 yards.

Clinton Jones and Dwight Lee scored the touchdowns as the Spartans won their 10th of the season, rallying from a gift first-half field goal by Notre Dame's Ken Iwan.

ROSE BOWL-BOUND MSU
at 117 yards on 20 carries from

Jones and 86 on 26 trips by Lee, the two workhorses. But this one belonged to the defense.

Notre Dame had the luck of the Irish going for it . . . lucky to escape with their lives.

Four Horsemen? These guys were like the whole cavalry. Fame, Festilence, Death and Destruction were like Halloween goodies compared to the Spartan defense.

Bubba Smith, 6-7, 268. Buddy Owens, 6-0, 221. Harold Lucas, 6-2, 256. Don Weatherspoon, 6-3, 228. Bob Vinny, 6-0, 214. Ron Govert, 5-11, 205. Charley Thornhill, 5-10, 204. George Webster, 6-4, 218.

They didn't tackle the Irish, they mauled them. They made the 20-Mule Team look like carousel ponies—going around and around but never forward.

Actually, it was a game in which only MSU provided all the thrills for the packed stadium of 50,000 plus the closed-circuit viewers in 21 cities around the world with a series of fumbles and interceptions.

SPARTAN SATURDAYS

MICHIGAN STATE HAS RANKED AMONG THE NCAA'S TOP 25 IN ATTENDANCE FOR 51 CONSECUTIVE SEASONS.

"There are two things I will always remember and cherish about Saturday home games: the team walks from the Kellogg Center to Spartan Stadium and running out of the tunnel. It's a privilege to play this great game, not a right; and it was truly an honor to represent Michigan State in competition and wear the Green and White. I appreciate the fact that very few athletes get the opportunity to experience that feeling. It was special to wear my school colors and the time went by way too quickly.

"I'll also always remember the 2004 night game against Wisconsin when the Badgers came to Spartan Stadium unbeaten and ranked fourth in the nation. The atmosphere was electric that night and Wisconsin never had a chance. That was the loudest I've ever heard any crowd in my life."

— Former Spartan and current Detroit Lion quarterback Drew Stanton

"You can't beat the game-day experience in Spartan Stadium. It all starts with the team's walk from the Kellogg Center to the stadium. When the running backs came out for pregame warm-ups, the student section was already full and you could feel the excitement building. I loved hearing the echoes of the band playing as it marched through the tunnel for the pregame show. But nothing compares to the experience of running out of the tunnel with the fans on their feet and the band playing the MSU Fight Song. Wow, what a rush! Spartan Stadium is a tough place to play — ask any opponent."

— Former Spartan and current Detroit Lion running back T.J. Duckett

"I enjoyed my entire Michigan State experience because of the camaraderie on campus. I'm shocked when I talk to some of my NFL peers and they discuss the rivalry and jealousy that existed between sports on their campus. At MSU, the student-athletes really bonded together and supported each other. As players, we always felt that we had the support of the entire campus community. We had a close relationship with the student body and that really showed on game day. There was a definite connection and you could certainly feel the energy in Spartan Stadium."

— Former Spartan and current Seattle Seahawks linebacker Julian Peterson

BOWL CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

- The Bowl Championship Series (BCS) is a five-game arrangement for postseason college football that is designed to match the two top-rated teams in a national championship game and to create exciting and competitive matchups between eight other highly regarded teams in four other games.

- The bowl games participating are the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl, FedEx Orange Bowl, Rose Bowl, Allstate Sugar Bowl and the BCS National Championship Game, which will be played each year at one of the bowl sites.

- The BCS is managed by the commissioners of the 11 NCAA Division I-A conferences, the director of athletics at the University of Notre Dame, and representatives of the bowl organizations. The conferences are Atlantic Coast, Big East, Big Ten, Big 12, Conference USA, Mid-American, Mountain West, Sun Belt, Pacific 10, Southeastern and Western Athletic.

- The conference commissioners and the Notre Dame athletics director make decisions regarding all BCS issues, in consultation with an athletics directors advisory group and subject to the approval of a presidential oversight committee whose members represent all 117 Division I-A programs.

- The five BCS games are part of the overall bowl structure. All bowl games provide meaningful season-ending opportunities to teams.

- As one conference commissioner said, "the celebration that occurs among the student-athletes, coaching staff and fans at the end of each bowl games is an indication of the importance of all bowl games."

- The BCS places great premium on the regular season of college football. Football weekends are an important ingredient in the overall college experience — going well beyond simply what occurs in the athletics department. A significant amount of the revenue that supports all athletic programs is generated by regular-season football. And so it is of great importance that the regular season remains strong and vibrant.

- The top two teams were matched in bowl games infrequently before the BCS, when conferences were contractually obligated to certain games and there was no flexibility to attempt to match the top teams.

- The BCS conferences have a contract with Fox Sports to televise the Fiesta, Orange and Sugar Bowls through 2010 and the National Championship Games through 2009. ABC has an agreement to continue to televise the 2010 National Championship Game and the Rose Bowl through 2014.

THE BCS IS WORKING

The BCS is succeeding. The nation's No. 1 and No. 2 teams met only eight times in bowl games in the 57 seasons between 1936 and 1992, when the "bowl coalition" (a predecessor of the BCS) was created. No. 1 and No. 2 have met eight times in the 15 years since 1992. In the nine-year history of the BCS, the AP's No. 1 and No. 2 have met six times.

REVENUE

Before the BCS was created, conferences without automatic berths in the "major" bowl games received no revenue from those games. In the first nine years of the BCS system, more than $70 million was distributed to conferences that do not have an annual automatic berth in the system.

ECONOMIC IMPACT

The total economic impact in the host cities from the five BCS games in January 2007 was estimated at more than $1.2 billion.

MEDIA EXPOSURE

A NATIONALLY RESPECTED PROGRAM AND TOP MEDIA DRAW

Michigan State is a popular choice for national and regional television coverage. Since 1995, the Spartans have played in front of a television audience on 127 occasions, an average of nearly 11 TV appearances per season. Michigan State enters the 2007 season with a streak of 50-consecutive live TV appearances (games televised regionally or nationally since November 2002).

Approximately 16 million people watched Spartan football games on TV in 2006, while the Spartan Sports Network reached an average radio audience of 198,500 per game last fall.

In 2005, ESPN's College GameDay made its fourth appearance in East Lansing, Mich., since 1997, covering the regular-season finale against Penn State in Spartan Stadium. In 2004, ESPN2's Cold Pizza produced four live segments from inside Spartan Stadium the day before the MSU-Notre Dame game.

Michigan State's media exposure truly ranks among the nation's elite programs. Spartan football enjoys the benefit of daily coverage in Detroit, the nation's 11th-largest television market. MSU's television coverage includes two other top-ranked markets: Grand Rapids/Kalamazoo/Battle Creek (No. 39) and Flint/Saginaw/Bay City (No. 66).

It also is difficult to match Michigan State's print media coverage. Five of the nation's top 160 newspapers, based upon reported circulation, assign writers and columnists to cover the Spartan football beat, including The Detroit News/Free Press (No. 21), The Grand Rapids Press (No. 80), The Flint Journal (No. 124) and Lansing State Journal (No. 155).

Weekly press conferences are held on campus, so that the media can get its fill of Spartan notes and quotes. Nearly 300 press credentials are issued to newspaper and magazine writers plus television and radio personalities on Spartan game days.

Fans with access to the internet keep up to date with Spartan football by visiting the official Michigan State athletics web site at www.msuspartans.com. The web site features a wealth of information on MSU football, including game results and stats, media guide contents, weekly press releases, player features, photo galleries and video highlight clips plus live radio broadcasts and live in-game statistics. The web site averaged 1.5 million page views per month in 2006-07, including nearly 224,000 unique visitors per month.

BIG TEN NETWORK

BIG TEN TELEVISION AGREEMENTS

Over the last few years, the Big Ten has reached a series of milestone media agreements to provide the conference with its greatest television exposure ever, including extensions with CBS (for basketball) and ABC/ESPN (for football, basketball and volleyball) and the creation of the Big Ten Network, a national network devoted to Big Ten athletic and academic programs. The conference's new media agreements will result in the broadcast of more than 500 events nationally and regionally beginning with the 2007-08 academic year, compared to 300 events in the final year of the previous agreements.

ABC/ESPN

In June 2006, the Big Ten signed a new 10-year national rights contract with ABC/ESPN. Big Ten action has been featured on ABC since 1966 and on ESPN since 1979, the network's first year. The new agreement, which begins during the 2007-08 season, includes up to 41 televised Big Ten football games – up to 17 on ABC and up to 25 on ESPN or ESPN2. In addition, all regional afternoon football games aired on ABC will be aired by ESPN/ESPN2 in out-markets, making these games nationally available. Additionally, through ESPN's collection of new media outlets such as ESPN.com, Mobile ESPN, ESPN360 and ESPN VOD, fans will receive live events (including simulcasts), extended video highlights including in-progress games, features and more. Big Ten coverage will also be available on ESPN Classic and throughout the world through ESPN International.

BIG TEN NETWORK

In June 2006, the Big Ten announced the creation of the Big Ten Network, a national network devoted to Big Ten athletic and academic programs. Available to all cable and satellite providers nationwide, with most programs offered in stunning high-definition television (HDTV), the network will allow fans to see their home teams, regardless of where they live.

The network is led by President Mark Silverman, a former Disney executive who came to the network after serving as the general manager and senior vice president of ABC Cable Networks Group since April 2004, managing the company's equity in such channels as Lifetime Television, A&E Network and the History Channel, each of which recorded their best financial performance in 2005. Silverman was also responsible for developing and launching new cable channels, shows and other key initiatives.

The Big Ten Network launches its inaugural season in August 2007 with football, men's and women's basketball, a nightly studio show, classics and coaches shows, along with more Olympic sporting events and exposure for women's sports than has ever been aired on any other network. In June 2007, the Big Ten announced that the Big Ten Network will become the first national network to commit to "event equality" for men's and women's sports on all network-controlled media within the first three years of launch. This dedication to "event equality" highlights the Big Ten's ongoing dedication to gender equity, which is aligned with the commitment of conference institutions to provide fairness for all female student-athletes.

The programming on the Big Ten Network and alternative network-controlled platforms will include, but is not limited to:

- More than 35 football games each season
- More than 105 regular season men's basketball games
- A nightly studio show including segments from each campus
- Women's sports, including basketball, volleyball, soccer and softball
- More than 170 Olympic sporting events including baseball, soccer, tennis, volleyball, swimming, diving and more
- Classic games and historical footage from ESPN and ABC libraries
- Original campus programming produced by Big Ten member universities showcasing their academic excellence, talented students and award-winning programs
- Weekly coaches shows

Located in the historic Montgomery Ward building in Chicago, the Big Ten Network is the first national television network to call the largest city in the Midwest its home. The original section of the building was designated as a historic landmark in 2000 for its significant role in American retail history. The space includes two studios and three control rooms as well as a 20,000 square-foot office space.

In May 2007, the Big Ten Network announced its first on-air hire, signing ESPN college sports expert Dave Revsine to be its lead studio host. Revsine joined ESPN in October 1996 as an anchor for ESPNNews and filled a variety of roles for the network over the past 10 years. The Northwestern graduate has anchored SportsCenter, hosted ESPN Radio's College GameDay for the last six years and hosted ESPN Radio's coverage of several BCS Championship games. He also hosted studio halftimes for basketball and co-hosted ESPN's coverage of the last two men's Final Fours.

In addition to airing more coverage of Big Ten sports than ever before, the Big Ten Network will also provide numerous benefits to communities around the Big Ten. Those include increased exposure for women's sports, providing positive role models for girls; a greater economic impact to the communities from added sporting event production, with the potential to generate higher attendance; and greater national exposure for the excellence that surrounds the academic endeavors of Big Ten universities, some of the most highly regarded in the nation. Also, an internship program at each of the 11 universities will offer students training for careers in sports, television and entertainment.

The Big Ten Network is a joint venture between subsidiaries of the Big Ten Conference and Fox Cable Networks. For more information regarding the Big Ten Network, visit www.BigTenNetwork.com.

PRESS BOX

The Spartan Stadium expansion project, completed in August 2005, included the construction of a new press box. Level 8 is the working press deck that features 193 seats and four radio broadcast booths. Level 6 is the television camera deck as well as the broadcast location for national and regional telecasts.

Admission to the press box is through Gate F on the west side of the stadium. All press personnel are subject to search prior to entering Spartan Stadium.

WORKING CREDENTIALS

All requests for working press, photo and broadcast credentials for Michigan State's 2007 home football games should be submitted online. Please contact sports information office assistant Paulette Martis at (517) 355-2271 for the URL.

Priority for the issuance of credentials will be given to daily newspapers and television stations which cover MSU football on a regular basis. All other credentials for print media are issued on basis of circulation. Upon acceptance of application, appropriate credentials are mailed out or held for pickup at media will-call, located at Gate F on the west side of Spartan Stadium. All members of the media picking up credentials at media will-call will be required to provide photo identification and the name must match the one listed on the credential. Working press tickets contain specific seat locations. Reporters requiring exclusive phone service should have their own lines and instruments installed. Others may use a limited number of telephones on a first-come, first-served basis.

PRO SCOUTS

As per Big Ten Conference regulations, Michigan State does not provide press box access or media credentials for professional scouts. However, scouts may purchase single-game tickets for Spartan home games through the MSU Football Office at (517) 355-1647.

ROAD GAME CREDENTIALS

Writers covering the Spartans on a regular basis may request media credentials for road games through the MSU Sports Information Office. Credential requests are submitted to opponent SIDs on Mondays two weeks prior to the game.

PHONE LINES

An adequate number of phone lines and phone instruments are available, but media members needing to order their own lines should contact Ameritech (800) 321-8152. Those ordering personal phones should provide Ameritech with the following street address for installation, One Michigan State University. To use existing lines, dial 8-0-area code-number. For toll free numbers, dial 8-1-800-number. Only collect, toll free and credit card calls are accepted.

INTERNET ACCESS

Wireless Internet is available for the working media in the press box on Level 8. Ethernet connections are available at each of the 193 seats in the press box, but only a limited number of cords are available. Please plan on bringing an Ethernet cord to use high-speed access. It is recommended for print outlets to use wireless access and photographers to use high-speed access.

RADIO

Each originating broadcasting station will be issued a maximum of eight booth credentials. Spotters' credentials must come from this allotment. Home team spotters are provided on advance notice only, and visiting team spotters must be arranged with visitors.

Only local radio stations with a full-time sports director conducting a daily sports show receive consideration for credentials. A post-game report service will be available from a sports information staffer after each home game at no charge.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

Field passes are issued on the basis of circulation with priority granted to media agencies covering the participating schools on a regular basis. Photographers may work from either sideline (except in the team area) and beyond both end zones. Press box photo passes for assigned locations are issued to television station crews. A maximum of three working tickets is allowed per TV station. With the return of natural grass in Spartan Stadium, field access is limited to still photographers, camera operators and sideline reporters for "live" radio/TV network coverage.

MSU follows the guidelines established by the NCAA Communications Committee regarding sideline control, which ensure the sideline is a working press area. The following guidelines are adhered to: 1. Each photographer is required to wear an armband at all times; 2. Armbands must be secured at the photographer's credential pickup; 3. After kickoff, no photographers are permitted in the bench area, on the playing field, or in the 12-foot area between the limit line and sideline; 4. Cutline writers, messengers and equipment carriers are not permitted in the sideline armband area; 5. Tripods are not permitted in the sideline armband area.

MEDIA PARKING

Media parking passes are available for $15 per game and $105 for the 2007 season (seven home games). The designated lots for media parking are all within easy walking distance of Spartan Stadium. Media parking passes will be assigned by the MSU Sports Information Department. Priority for lot assignment will be given to daily newspapers and TV stations that cover Spartan football on a regular basis. All other media parking will be issued on the basis of circulation or market size (TV/radio). Additional parking fees are required to accommodate TV satellite trucks and "live" radio remotes.

STATISTICAL SERVICES

Prior to kickoff, all media members will be provided a game program, updated game notes from both teams, a flip card and other pertinent information. Last-minute line-up changes, pregame weather conditions and other information will be relayed through the internal public address system. During the game, media members will be provided with a running play-by-play and quickie stats at the end of each quarter. Following the game, a complete post-game stats package will be available in the press box and will contain a scoring summary, final team statistics, final individual statistics, complete play-by-play, drive charts, defensive statistics, player participation list, post-game quotes from both head coaches and selected players plus post-game notes.

Game notes and quotes will be posted on Michigan State's official web site promptly after the conclusion of the game. www.msuspartans.com.

MEDIA HOSPITALITY

A complimentary pregame meal will be served on Level 8 (press box), beginning approximately two hours before kickoff and running through the conclusion of halftime. Complimentary coffee and soft drinks are available throughout the game. Additional food and refreshments will be sold throughout the game from the concession area, located on Level 8.

HOTEL ROOMS

Hotel rooms are booked far in advance of Michigan State home football weekends. The Michigan State Sports Information Office has set aside a limited number of rooms at local hotels for accredited media representatives.

Arrangements should be made through sports information office assistant Paulette Martis at (517) 355-2271. Some area hotels require a two-night stay for Michigan State home football weekends and a valid credit card is required for reservations being made through the MSU Sports Information Office. Media members are responsible for making their own lodging arrangements when Michigan State plays on the road office assistant Paulette Martis at (517) 355-2271. Some area hotels require a two-night stay for Michigan State home football weekends and a valid credit card is required for reservations being made through the MSU Sports Information Office. Media members are responsible for making their own lodging arrangements when Michigan State plays on the road.

WEEKLY PRESS CONFERENCES

A weekly press conference with MSU head coach Mark Dantonio and selected players will be held each Monday during the season, beginning at 11:30 a.m. on Level 4 (LaSalle Bank Club) in Spartan Stadium. Parking is available in Lot 79 – the gated, pay lot – located south of Spartan Stadium, off of Shaw Lane.

WEEKLY INTERVIEWS

Outside the weekly press conference, interviews during the week with head coach Mark Dantonio or any Spartan players should be arranged through the MSU Sports Information Office. The MSU Sports Information Office requests that all player interviews be arranged through this department and that media members are prohibited from contacting players in their apartments or dormitory rooms. The best time for player interviews is following practice Tuesday at approximately 5:30 p.m. All player interviews should be completed by the conclusion of practice on Wednesday of game week. Please contact the MSU Sports Information Office for all player interview requests at least 24 hours in advance.

Media parking is available in Lot 79 – the gated, pay lot – located south of Spartan Stadium, off of Shaw Lane.

POST-GAME INTERVIEWS

Media representatives may attend head coach Mark Dantonio's post-game press conference in the interview trailer, located outside the stadium tunnel entrance after a short post-game cooling-off period. All requested Spartan players also will be available for post-game comments in the interview trailer following Coach Dantonio's press conference. The Spartan locker room is closed to the media. Coach Dantonio's comments will be hooked into an amplification system and audio feeds can be obtained through use of connector cords (standard 1/4-inch connector). TV stations should bring a recording deck, standard BNC video cable and XLR audio cable. TV cameramen will be asked to set up their equipment at the back of the room. Coach Dantonio's post-game press conference can also be seen live on closed circuit in the press box. The visiting coach press conference, held in another trailer outside the tunnel, will be shown on a tape-delay basis following Coach Dantonio's press conference.

PRACTICE SCHEDULE

Tuesday practices are open to the working media for approximately 30 minutes, beginning at 3:30 p.m. TV cameras and still photographers are permitted to shoot flex and the first few periods. The remainder of practice is closed.

WEEKLY RELEASE VIA E-MAIL

To receive the weekly football release via electronic mail, members of the media can send an e-mail message to Associate Athletics Director John Lewandowski: lewand19@ath.msu.edu. The release is also posted on the athletics department official web site www.msuspartans.com in text format and Adobe PDF format.

For the eighth consecutive season, the Spartan Radio Network (Holt, Mich.) will produce and distribute Michigan State football broadcasts on 38 affiliates throughout the state, including flagship stations WJIM Radio (AM 1240)/WMMQ (FM 94.9) in Lansing and WJR Radio (AM 760) in Detroit.

Veteran play-by-play announcer George Blaha anchors the Spartan Radio Network's broadcast team for Michigan State football in 2007 that includes former Spartan and pro quarterback Jim Miller as color analyst and former All-Big Ten center Jason Strayhorn as the sideline reporter.

This fall marks Blaha's 30th season as the play-by-play announcer for Spartan football. In addition, he handled play-by-play duties for Michigan State basketball during part of the 2000-01 season. Blaha recently completed his 31st consecutive season as the television and radio play-by-play voice of the National Basketball Association's Detroit Pistons. With the retirement of Detroit Tigers' legend Ernie Harwell in 2002 after 42 seasons with the ballclub, the "Voice of the Pistons" is the longest tenured play-by-play broadcaster in the state. Blaha has been named Michigan Sports Broadcaster of the Year twice (1998 and 2002) by the National Association of Sports Writers and Broadcasters. In 2002, he also was presented the Ty Tyson Award for "Excellence in Sports Broadcasting" by the Detroit Sports Broadcasters Association.

Born in Detroit, Blaha was raised in Marshalltown, Iowa, and Grayling, Mich. He and his father attended Michigan State's first-ever Big Ten football game, played at Iowa in 1953. Blaha earned a bachelor's degree in economics from Notre Dame in 1966 and later received his MBA from Michigan.

Prior to signing a National Letter of Intent to attend Michigan State in February 1989, Miller earned All-America and all-state honors at Kettering High School in Waterford, Mich. A three-year starter for Coach George Perles from 1991-93, he still ranks among MSU's all-time leaders in pass attempts (fifth at 746), pass completions (second at 467), completion percentage (second at .629) and passing yards (fifth at 5,037). As a senior, Miller shared team MVP honors after completing 215-of-336 passes (.640) for 2,269 yards and nine touchdowns. A three-time Academic All-Big Ten selection from 1990-92, he earned his bachelor's degree in supply chain management from Michigan State in 2002.

A sixth-round selection by the Pittsburgh Steelers in the 1994 National Football League Draft, Miller threw for 6,387 yards and 36 TDs during his nine-year pro career (Pittsburgh, 1995-96; Atlanta, 1997; Chicago, 1998-2002; New England, 2004). He earned 27 career starts at quarterback, compiling a 15-11 record as a starter in Chicago. In five seasons with the Bears, Miller recorded three 300-yard passing games. In his first career start against Minnesota on Nov. 14, 1999, he completed 34-of-48 throws for 422 yards and three scores. His 422 passing yards represent the fourth-highest single-game total in Chicago history. In 2001, Miller led the Bears' charge to the playoffs, posting an 11-2 record as a starter during the regular season while establishing career highs in pass attempts (395), pass completions (228), passing yards (2,299) and TDs (13). In 2002, he threw for 1,944 yards while matching his career best with 13 TD tosses.

Miller owns JMK Custom Homes in Clarkston, Mich.

A native of Indianapolis, Ind., Strayhorn started 24 consecutive games at center for Coach Nick Saban in 1997-98. As a senior, he earned first-team All-Big Ten honors from the coaches and media after grading out as a winner (better than 70 percent) in 11 of the 12 games in 1998. The former team captain also received the Up Front Award as the team's outstanding interior lineman in 1998, consistently posting the unit's top grade for pass protection by not allowing a sack the entire season. Strayhorn turned in one of the best performances of his career in MSU's 28-24 victory over top-ranked Ohio State in Columbus in 1998. He was selected Spartan Offensive Player of the Week after grading out 80 percent overall against the Buckeyes, including 89 percent in his pass-blocking assignments.

Strayhorn, who received his bachelor's degree in business management from Michigan State in 1998, is an executive mortgage banker for Rock Financial.

Will Tieman returns for his eighth year on the Spartan football broadcast team, serving as the broadcast host. For the 18th year, Tieman serves as host for the syndicated series, "This Week in College Football." Tieman's other football-related activities include: hosting a daily statewide series, called "In the Huddle with Mark Dantonio" and handling play-by-play duties for the national broadcast of the Motor City and International Bowls.

POSITION-BY-POSITION BREAKDOWN

First-year head coach Mark Dantonio takes a position-by-position look at the 2007 Spartans.

QUARTERBACKS

The biggest challenge on offense is filling the shoes of three-year starter and two-time team MVP Drew Stanton, who accounted for 8,036 total yards and 57 touchdowns during his career.

After serving as Stanton's understudy for the past two seasons, Brian Hoyer (6-3, 212, Jr.) takes over the starting role at quarterback. He appeared in eight games in 2006 and completed 82-of-144 passes (.569) for 863 yards, four TDs and three interceptions. With Stanton sidelined with a concussion for the season finale at Penn State, Hoyer earned his first career start and responded by completing 30-of-61 throws for 291 yards and a score. The previous week against Minnesota, he came off the bench to throw for 330 yards and a TD. For his career, Hoyer has completed 97-of-167 passes (.581) for 1,030 yards and six TDs.

Conner Dixon (6-4, 191, R-Fr.) emerged as the solid No. 2 starter by the end of spring practice. Dixon was impressive in the spring game, completing 10-of-12 throws for 105 yards and a touchdown. Clay Charles (6-1, 199, So.), who alternated snaps with the second-team offense along with Dixon in the spring, will also provide backup at quarterback. Incoming freshmen Kirk Cousins (6-3, 181) and Nick Foles (6-5, 235) could also compete for the back-up role during preseason camp.

"Brian Hoyer came into the spring as a somewhat proven commodity because of the playing experience he gained a year ago," Dantonio said. "I really like Brian's presence in the huddle; he's definitely in control. He's got a great arm, and he's demonstrated poise in the pocket. Brian moves well enough to get out of the pocket when pressured and create opportunities down the field. He has a good grasp of the offense and real leadership qualities."

"It was important for us to try and develop some depth at quarterback in the spring. With only two scholarship quarterbacks on the roster in the spring, there were plenty of opportunities for others to showcase their ability. It was a good situation for Connor Dixon and Clay Charles because they had to compete for snaps."

Brian Hoyer, who threw for 863 yards and four touchdowns in a backup role last season, will begin his first year as the starting quarterback in 2007.

Veteran Jehuu Caulcrick has rushed for 1,523 yards and 18 touchdowns in his first three seasons.

RUNNING BACKS/FULLBACKS

Michigan State returns three of its top four rushers from 2006. The trio of Javon Ringer (5-9, 202, Jr.), Jehuu Caulcrick (6-0, 255, Sr.-5) and A.J. Jimmerson (5-10, 202, So.) combined to rush for 1,063 yards and nine TDs last season.

Ringer (86 carries for 497 yards) led the Spartans in rushing for the second year in a row, despite missing four-plus games with a knee injury.

Caulcrick finished third on the team in rushing with 426 yards on 108 attempts and scored a team-leading six TDs, while Jimmerson rushed for 140 yards and two scores.

Incoming freshmen Andre Anderson (5-9, 182) and Ashton Leggett (5-11, 220) also are expected to push for playing time in 2007.

"Javon Ringer and Jehuu Caulcrick really complement each other at running back," Dantonio said. "Javon is a big-play threat any time he touches the football, while Caulcrick is the prototypical power back. It's also exciting to know that we have a multi-purpose back in the mix like A.J. Jimmerson."

"Javon is truly an exceptional football player. Not only is he a talented athlete, but he's a great competitor that plays the game with an attitude."

"Caulcrick is beginning to come into his own as a punishing runner, but he must remain healthy," Dantonio continued.

"A.J. enjoyed a productive spring, showing off his talents as both a runner and pass receiver."

Former linebacker Jeff McPherson (6-1, 245, Jr.) and converted tight end Dwayne Holmes (6-0, 275, Jr.) will both see time at fullback, while Devin Pritchett (6-2, 245, Sr.-5) provides depth at the position.

Javon Ringer has led the Spartans in rushing the past two seasons, and his 6.32 yards per carry ranks as the third-highest rushing average in school history.

WIDE RECEIVERS

Michigan State's personnel losses are heaviest at wide receiver where all three starters are gone from the old spread offense. The trio of Kerry Reed, Matt Trannon and Jerramy Scott combined for 376 career receptions, 4,685 yards and 28 TDs. Despite the loss of three headliners, the Spartans are well stocked at wide receiver with seven returning lettermen.

"We have identified some guys that have play-making ability, especially the ability to run after the catch," Dantonio said. "We've also worked hard at identifying the receivers that are willing to stick their heads in there and block on running plays. That has been a point of emphasis this spring. For the running game to be productive on a consistent basis, we need receivers that will attack and block the safeties with an attitude."

Devin Thomas (6-2, 214, Jr.) enters preseason camp as one starting wide receiver, while Deon Curry is slotted as a starter on the opposite end.

Thomas, who ranked as one of the top 20 JUCO prospects in the nation after one season at Coffeyville (Kan.) Community College, caught six passes for 90 yards (9.0 avg.) and a touchdown in 10 games for the Spartans in 2006.

"Devin Thomas keeps getting better, and you can see him growing in confidence," Dantonio said. "He's a big, strong receiving threat. Devin has the ability to become a consistent playmaker."

With a veteran receiving corps in place last season, Curry primarily saw action on special teams. After spending the winter with the men's basketball team, glimpses of Curry's potential appeared in the spring, as he took a majority of the snaps with the first team and caught three passes for 62 yards in the spring game.

Other top contenders for playing time at wide receiver include Ryan Allison (6-3, 205, Jr.), David Williams (5-9, 178, R-Fr.), Carl Grimes (5-9, 175, Jr.), Terry Love (5-11, 173, Sr.-5) and T.J. Williams (6-3, 184, So.). Love finished fifth on the team in catches with 18 for 234 yards, while Williams ranked fourth on the team in receptions with 25 for 281 yards and three TDs.

Three incoming freshmen — B.J. Cunningham (6-2, 200), Mark Dell (6-2, 185) and Chris D. Rucker (5-10, 172) — will have an opportunity to earn their way into the playing rotation this fall.

OFFENSIVE LINE

Eight lettermen return on Michigan State's offensive line, including seven players with starting experience.

The right side of the line will remain the same as last season, with Roland Martin (6-5, 325, Jr.) at guard and Jesse Miller (6-6, 307, Jr.) at tackle. Martin and Miller were the only two offensive linemen last season to start every game at the same position.

Mike Gyetvai (6-7, 307, Sr.-5) and Pete Clifford (6-7, 316, Sr.-5) will compete for the starting role at left tackle. Gyetvai is a two-year starter, but sat out the last six games of 2006 with a shoulder injury and was withheld from contact drills in the spring while recovering from shoulder surgery. In the spring, Clifford took over starting duties at left tackle in Gyetvai's absence. Clifford, who also battled injuries in 2006, saw action in nine games last season while starting four games at left tackle and three at left guard.

Jesse Miller started every game at right tackle last season and graded out 91 percent or higher in 11 of 12 games.

With Clifford at left tackle, Kenny Shane (6-5, 325, Sr.-5) enters preseason camp at left guard where he started three games a year ago. Clifford could also see time at left guard.

John Masters (6-4, 285, Sr.-5), who started the last three games of the 2006 campaign, ranks as the heir apparent to the starting job at center.

Next in terms of experience is back-up right tackle Rocco Cironi (6-6, 300, So.), who earned Big Ten All-Freshman honors in 2006 after appearing in seven games including two starting assignments at left tackle.

"We've got numbers and experience back on the offensive line," Dantonio said. "We have good size up front to go along with the athletic ability to get things done."

"As the result of injuries last year, they utilized seven different starting combinations on the offensive line. There's no question that remaining healthy up front is going to be a key. We'll lose seven linemen over the next two years, so the younger guys benefited from getting additional reps in the spring."

In his first year as a starter, Roland Martin started all 12 games at right guard in 2006, grading out 91 percent or higher in each game.

TIGHT ENDS

Veteran tight ends Kellen Davis (6-6, 254, Sr.) and Eric Andino (6-4, 246, Sr.) figure to play major roles in Michigan State's offensive game plan in 2007. Red-shirt freshman Charlie Gantt (6-4, 240) also is expected to push for playing time.

In addition, two incoming freshmen — Garrett Celek (6-5, 240) and David Duran (6-5, 235) — could make their presence known at the tight end position.

"Tight end is going to be an important position in this offense," Dantonio said. "Two critical components to the running game are having a center that can control the middle of the line and a tight end that can manage the C gap. It's difficult to have an effective run-gap football team without consistent, quality play from the tight end."

"Kellen Davis has experience and he's got the athletic ability, so it's time for him to put it all together for his senior year. Eric Andino worked hard throughout the winter conditioning program, and displayed good athleticism in the spring. Charlie Gantt is a red-shirt freshman who was provided a lot of opportunities to grow during spring practice."

DEFENSIVE LINE

The most difficult task on defense is retooling a defensive line that lost starting tackles Clifton Ryan and David Stanton.

Ervin Baldwin (6-2, 270, Sr.) anchors the defensive front from one end position. Baldwin led the Spartan defensive line in tackles with 35 in 2006, including a team-leading four sacks (32 yards). He was also second on the team with 10 quarterback hurries and tied for third on the team with 6.5 tackles for losses. Andrew Hawken (6-2, 240, So.) and Reggie Graham (6-4, 215, So.) will provide depth at the position.

Top contenders for the starting job opposite Baldwin are Brandon Long (6-4, 245, Jr.) and Jonal Saint-Dic (6-1, 250, Sr.-5). Long saw action in 10 games last season, while Saint-Dic played in 11 games, starting four of the last five. Saint-Dic recorded 23 tackles and collected 3.5 tackles for losses (36 yards), including two sacks.

Ervin Baldwin led the Spartan defensive line in tackles with 35 in 2006, including a team-leading four sacks for 32 yards.

Justin Kershaw (6-4, 260, Jr.), who started eight games at stud end last season, is penciled in the starting lineup at defensive tackle. Kershaw made 26 stops with 2.5 tackles for losses in his first year as a starter. John Stipek (6-5, 276, So.) will also see time at defensive tackle. As a true freshman in 2006, Stipek played on the defensive line in four of the last five games.

Ogemdi Nwagbuo (6-4, 290, Sr.) enters preseason camp at nose tackle. Nwagbuo played in every game last season and made six starts, recording 23 tackles. J'Michael Deane (6-5, 286, R-Fr.) is expected to provide depth at the position.

With a lack of depth on the defensive line, three incoming freshmen — Antonio Jeremiah (6-5, 295), Ryan Wheat (6-5, 308) and Oren Wilson (6-3, 290) — are expected to compete for playing time. MSU also added JUCO transfer Michael Jordan (6-5, 295, So.), who should provide immediate help. Jordan was one of the most highly regarded junior college prospects last season after collecting 11 tackles for losses for Eastern Arizona College in 2006.

"I was impressed with the way Ervin Baldwin performed last year, especially when you consider that he didn't arrive on campus until preseason camp in August," Dantonio said. "He immediately became an impact player, because he works extremely hard and he's very competitive. When Ervin has his motor running, he can make some plays in the offensive backfield.

"Brandon Long had limited contact early in the spring while still recovering from a shoulder injury, but he's finally healthy. Now, he's getting an opportunity to prove that he's one of our more athletic defensive ends.

"Jonal Saint-Dic has shown some signs of being a playmaker. He doesn't have great size for the position, but he's got some shock value because he's strong and has the ability to quickly change direction.

"Justin Kershaw had an outstanding spring," Dantonio continued. "We were able to move him inside from the end position, and he's been very productive in there.

"John Stipek reminds me some of Tim Anderson when he was a sophomore at Ohio State. He's just a tough, hard-working guy. John will continue to improve because he wants to get better and he's extremely competitive. He's going to consistently give you everything he's got whenever he steps onto the field.

"O.G. is a big, strong inside guy that can move. He got his feet wet last season, starting six games.

"We're extremely thin at defensive tackle. It's extremely tough to play inside as a true freshman, but we might not have a choice this fall. We might be forced to get the job done by freshman committee this fall."

Kaleb Thornhill, who registered a career-high 68 tackles last season, enters his third year as the starting middle linebacker.

LINEBACKERS

The Spartans are well stocked at linebacker, thanks to the presence of seven returning lettermen, including three-year starter Kaleb Thornhill (6-1, 240, Sr.-5) at the MIKE (middle) position. Thornhill, who has started 21 consecutive games, was held out of contact drills in the spring while rehabbing from knee and shoulder injuries. In 2006, he ranked third on the team in tackles (68) and production points (132).

Adam Decker (6-2, 233, So.) saw time at SAM linebacker in the spring, but is slated to backup Thornhill in the fall. Decker played in every game last season, seeing action at linebacker and special teams. Josh Rouse (6-3, 230, So.) also received time with the first-team defense in the spring at middle linebacker.

Eric Gordon (6-0, 225, R-Fr.) enters preseason camp as the starter at WILL linebacker. Gordon impressed the coaching staff with an excellent spring, averaging 9.0 tackles in the three scrimmages. For his efforts, Gordon was named to the All-Spring Team as selected by The Sporting News. SirDarean Adams (6-0, 230, Sr.), a two-year starter, will also compete for WILL linebacker. Adams finished fourth on the team in tackles (46) in 2006, including 6.5 for losses (25 yards).

Tops on the list of SAM linebacker candidates are Jon Misch (6-2, 200, R-Fr.) and Rob Tabatchnick (5-11, 215, Sr.)

"Kaleb Thornhill didn't see any live action in the spring because he was still banged up (knee and shoulder), but he's already demonstrated that he can play at this level," Dantonio said. "At first, I was a little concerned about his learning curve for the defensive package, but he's an extremely intelligent player that mentally took every snap in the spring.

"We have a number of good, young players at the linebacker positions, in Andrew Hawken, Eric Gordon, Adam Decker and Josh Rouse. All four of those guys play hard and compete. In addition, they have all demonstrated the ability to play under control in space.

"Eric really stood out as a playmaker in the spring scrimmages. At 225 pounds, he's athletic and explosive."

An honorable mention All-Big Ten selection last year, Wiley led the team and ranked seventh in the conference with 94 tackles.

DEFENSIVE BACKS

Otis Wiley (6-2, 210, Jr.) anchors the defensive secondary from his free safety position. Last season, Wiley led the Spartans in tackles (94), production points (165) and pass break-ups (10). He ranked seventh in the Big Ten in tackles, averaging 7.8 per game.

Strong safety Nehemiah Warrick (6-1, 200, So.) started 10 games in 2006 and ranked fifth on the team in tackles with 45.

The Spartans have two vacancies to fill in the secondary, both cornerback positions (Greg Cooper and Demond Williams). Kendell Davis-Clark (5-11, 199, Jr.) and Ross Weaver (6-1, 202, R-So.) are the leading candidates to fill those starting roles at corner. Davis-Clark made his presence known last season, recording 39 tackles, while Weaver missed the entire 2006 campaign with a broken ankle.

Other candidates for playing time in the secondary include safeties Travis Key (5-10, 185, Sr.) and Roderick Jenrette (6-1, 196, So.), along with cornerbacks Ashton Henderson (5-11, 183, So.) and Jeremy Ware (5-10, 181, So.). Key played in all 12 games last season and was sixth on the team with 42 tackles. As true freshmen, Jenrette saw action in 11 games and Henderson played in eight, including one start. Ware is a transfer from South Carolina. Converted wide receiver Diego Oquendo (5-9, 175, Jr.) and running back Brandon Denson (5-11, 215, So.), in addition to Marcus Hyde (6-0, 200, R-Fr.) and Dan Fortener (6-1, 197, So.), could also provide depth in the secondary.

"You can really build the secondary around a guy like Otis Wiley because he's a proven playmaker with great leadership skills," Dantonio said. "Otis has good size for a safety, tackles very well in space and has good ball skills.

"Last year, Nehemiah Warrick and Travis Key played the strong safety position by committee. I like what they both bring to the table in terms of their work ethic and play-making ability.

"Kendell Davis-Clark was probably the most consistent corner in the spring. He played well in every practice that he was healthy (quad injury). Kendell has a nose for the football and when he arrives, he'll hit you.

"Ross Weaver is a big corner, who runs extremely well," Dantonio said. "Ross also possesses good leadership skills."

Nehemiah Warrick returns as the starting strong safety this season after collecting 45 tackles, including 3.5 for losses, in 2006.

SPECIAL TEAMS

Michigan State has one of the Big Ten's best specialists in placekicker Brett Swenson (5-8, 160, So.), who led the team in scoring with 78 points in 2006. The Freshman All-American converted 15-of-19 field-goal attempts and all 33 extra-point tries. His 15 made field goals represent the ninth-best single-season total in Spartan history.

The Spartans lose four-year punter Brandon Fields, who ranks No. 2 on MSU's all-time list and No. 3 in Big Ten history with his 45.0-yard career average.

The punting job remains open until preseason camp when incoming freshman Aaron Bates (6-0, 190) will compete against Ed Wagner (6-5, 225, R-Fr.) for the starting role.

"Brett Swenson did a great job last year," Dantonio said. "He's an extremely hard worker in practice, and he's very competitive. I really like his maturity because he brings a business-like approach to the field.

"Todd Boleski (6-6, 298, Jr.) did a good job as the kick-off specialist last year, and his role becomes even more important this season, with the kickoffs now coming from the 30-yard line.

"The punt is the most important play in football, so that's why we recruited a punter. Aaron Bates wasn't here in the spring, but he'll have an opportunity to compete against Ed Wagner during preseason camp."

In his first season, Freshman All-American Brett Swenson emerged as one of the top placekickers in the Big Ten, converting 15-of-19 field-goal attempts and all 33 extra-point tries.

MARK DANTONIO
HEAD COACH
FIRST SEASON

Mark Dantonio, who coached Cincinnati the past three seasons and was a former assistant coach at Michigan State for six years, became Michigan State University's 24th head football coach on Nov. 27, 2006.

The 51-year old Dantonio established himself as one of the nation's up-and-coming coaches during his three-year tenure at Cincinnati. In 2006, Dantonio led the Bearcats to a 7-5 overall record and a 4-3 BIG EAST mark, making Cincinnati bowl eligible for the second time in three years. Dantonio accomplished the feat against the second-toughest schedule in the country, as UC's opponents compiled a 69-42 record. His Bearcats upset then-No. 7 Rutgers, 30-11, on Nov. 18, handing the Scarlet Knights their first loss of the season and marking the highest-ranked opponent ever defeated by UC.

Highly respected as one of the top defensive coaches in the country, Dantonio's Bearcats finished the 2006 regular season ranked among the NCAA leaders in six statistical categories: No. 21 in tackles for loss (6.8 per game), No. 23 in pass efficiency defense (109.3 rating), No. 27 in rushing defense (107.5 yards per game), No. 31 in total defense (304.3 ypg.), No. 34 in scoring defense (19.3 points per game) and No. 34 in sacks (2.4 per game).

Dantonio compiled an 18-17 overall record in his three years at Cincinnati and led the program in its transition to the BIG EAST Conference. He became the first head coach in 23 years to direct a team to a winning season in his first year at UC. The Bearcats' went 7-5 in 2004, including a 5-3 mark in Conference USA to finish second in the league standings, and defeated Marshall in the Fort Worth Bowl.

In his three seasons at Cincinnati, 21 of Dantonio's players earned All-BIG EAST honors and 40 received academic all-conference recognition. Each of the last two years (2006-07), Cincinnati's program has been presented the American Football Coaches Association Academic Achievement Award for attaining a graduation rate of at least 70 percent for its student-athletes.

Prior to his appointment at Cincinnati, Dantonio served as the defensive coordinator at Ohio State for three seasons, where his defensive unit became known as one of the stingiest in the country. During the Buckeyes' 2002 National Championship season, OSU ranked second nationally in scoring defense and third in rushing defense, and the following year, his unit ranked No. 1 in the country in rushing defense and ninth in total defense, sparking the Buckeyes to an 11-2 mark and a No. 4 national ranking.

Dantonio is familiar with East Lansing, as he spent six seasons (1995-2000) as Michigan State's secondary coach, including associate head coach duties in 2000. He contributed to Michigan State's successful 1999 season, during which the Spartans went 10-2, won the Florida Citrus Bowl, led the Big Ten in total defense and ranked No. 7 in the final polls.

A Zanesville, Ohio, native with Midwest ties, Dantonio has 24 years of collegiate coaching experience, and has coached in 10 bowl games. He has worked for some of the top coaches in the game, including Nick Saban, Jim Tressel and Earle Bruce.

Here's a closer look at Dantonio's tenure at Cincinnati:

- The 2006 Cincinnati Bearcats went 7-5 overall and 4-3 in the BIG EAST Conference against the nation's second-toughest schedule. Four of UC's five losses came to ranked teams (Ohio State, Louisville, Virginia Tech and West Virginia). The Bearcats produced arguably the greatest victory in school history with a 30-11 victory over then-No. 7 Rutgers on Nov. 18, marking the highest-ranked opponent ever defeated by UC.

Last season, Cincinnati finished the regular season ranked fourth in the BIG EAST and No. 27 nationally in rushing defense, allowing 107.5 yards per game. UC held seven of its 12 regular-season opponents to less than 100 yards rushing, highlighted by performances of 36 yards each in back-to-back games against Miami-Ohio and Akron. In the win over Rutgers, Cincinnati held the nation's No. 15 rushing offense to a season-low 50 yards on the ground, and limited the NCAA's No. 3 rusher, Ray Rice, to a season-low 54 yards. Defensive end Trevor Anderson ranked among the BIG EAST leaders in tackles for loss (No. 5 at 1.13 per game) and sacks (No. 6 at 0.5 per game).

Six Bearcats earned All-BIG EAST honors, including three first-team selections: defensive tackle Terrill Byrd, linebacker Kevin McCullough and free safety Dominic Ross. Three UC players received second-team all-conference honors, including offensive guard Trevor Canfield, tight end Brent Celek and cornerback Mike Mickens.

- In 2005, Dantonio brought together one of the nation's youngest teams, with the Bearcats starting as many as five first-year freshman on defense and posted a competitive 4-7 record in the program's first season in the BIG EAST.

- Dantonio became only the second head coach in Cincinnati history (along with Sid Gillman) to take the Bearcats to a bowl game in his first season in 2004. UC topped Marshall, 32-14, in the Fort Worth Bowl to cap a 7-5 season. The Bearcats tied for second in the Conference USA standings with a 5-3 league mark. Cincinnati led C-USA and ranked No. 26 in the NCAA in pass defense, allowing 194.2 yards per game. The Bearcats also ranked second in C-USA in total defense (341.3 ypg.) and third in both scoring defense (26.7 ppg.) and pass efficiency defense (121.5). Offensively, quarterback Gino Guidugli ranked 15th in the country in passing efficiency (146.5) and directed the Bearcats to the 30th-ranked offense in the nation (405.6 ypg). Three players were chosen in the 2005 NFL Draft (defensive end Trent Cole, linebacker Tjjuan Hagler and cornerback Daven Holly).

While serving as the defensive coordinator at Ohio State, Dantonio's defense guided the Buckeyes to a 32-6 mark in his three seasons in Columbus. Ohio State's defense was the second toughest against the run in 2003, allowing 62.3 yards per game, and was ranked No. 10 in total defense (296.9 ypg.) and No.

16 in scoring defense (17.6 ppg.). Those efforts helped the Buckeyes rank No. 4 in the final polls. Dantonio assembled the defense which led Ohio State to the national title in 2002. The Buckeyes were second nationally in scoring defense (13.1 ppg.) and third in rushing defense (77.7 ypg.) during their title run. Six Buckeyes defenders were named first-team All-Big Ten during Dantonio's tenure and 13 were drafted by the pros, including a pair of first-round selections in 2004 (defensive end Will Smith and cornerback Chris Gamble).

Dantonio spent six seasons (1995-2000) as secondary coach at Michigan State, five under Nick Saban and one under Bobby Williams. He was promoted to associate head coach in 2000. During MSU's 10-2 season in 1999, he tutored cornerback Amp Campbell, who earned third-team All-America honors from the Associated Press. Under his supervision, the Spartan secondary ranked among the NCAA leaders in pass efficiency defense three of his last four years, finishing No. 10 (101.6) in 1998, No. 16 (103.9) in 1997 and No. 22 (104.5) in 2000. In his last season as secondary coach at MSU, the Spartans only allowed 164.1 yards a game through the air, ranking seventh in the country. During his six years in East Lansing, MSU compiled a 39-30-1 record.

Dantonio came to Michigan State following four seasons under Glen Mason at Kansas (1991-94) where he coached the defensive secondary. In 1992, the Jayhawks produced an 8-4 record and defeated BYU, 23-20, in the Aloha Bowl.

Dantonio previously spent five years at Youngstown State under Jim Tressel, helping the Penguins to three trips to the NCAA I-AA playoffs. While serving as defensive coordinator in 1990, Youngstown State posted a perfect 11-0 regular-season record and ranked second nationally.

His coaching credits also including stops at Akron (defensive secondary, 1985), Ohio State (graduate assistant, 1983-84), Butler (Kan.) Junior College (defensive coordinator, 1982), Purdue (graduate assistant, 1981) and Ohio University (graduate assistant, 1980). During his stint as a graduate assistant under Earle Bruce at Ohio State, the Buckeyes played in the 1983 Fiesta and 1984 Rose Bowls.

Dantonio began his coaching career as an assistant coach at Westside High School in Anderson, S.C.

Dantonio earned three letters as a defensive back for Coach Jim Carlen at South Carolina (1976-78). He earned a bachelor's degree in education from South Carolina in 1979. Dantonio later earned a master's degree in education from Ohio U. in 1980.

He picked up all-state and all-league honors as a prep football player at Zanesville (Ohio) High School. Dantonio also was selected to play in the Ohio North-South All-Star Game.

Born March 9, 1956, in El Paso, Texas, Mark and his wife Becky have two daughters, Kristen (14) and Lauren (12).

MSU MEN'S BASKETBALL COACH TOM IZZO:

"Mark Dantonio is the right coach for Michigan State University. He's a guy that's dying to be here. And just as important, he understands Michigan State and knows that we are dying to experience great success in football."

"Being a football coach is a multi-dimensional job. Like any major hire, you can't get the best in just one dimension. They've done a great job getting the best coach that can handle all the different aspects that you have to handle as football coach."

OHIO STATE HEAD FOOTBALL COACH JIM TRESSEL:

"I am so proud to have Mark Dantonio back in the Big Ten. It's a little bit like when one of your players receives his degree or is a first-round draft choice. You just feel good about what they have accomplished. Mark will build a great program and will do a great job. We are looking forward to competing against him, but the neighborhood just got tougher."

FORMER SPARTAN AND CURRENT SEATTLE SEAHAWK LINEBACKER JULIAN PETERSON:

"I can't tell you how excited I am about the future of Spartan football. The program is in great hands because Mark Dantonio is a great motivator who really knows how to relate to his players. He knows how to bring the best out of his players. I can honestly tell you that Mark is the main reason I chose to attend Michigan State, and it's the best decision I've made."

"Mark really promotes a family atmosphere for the players. He took a personal interest in me and helped me grow in every aspect of my life. Mark had as big an impact on my everyday life as he did on my development as a football player. That's why he's so well respected by his players."

FORMER SPARTAN AND CURRENT DETROIT LION RUNNING BACK T.J. DUCKETT:

"With Mark Dantonio in charge, the Michigan State football program is headed in the right direction. He will re-establish the Spartan brand of football. Rest assured, his teams will play physical on both sides of the football. I look forward to seeing the return of the power running game to go along with a hard-nosed defense that swarms the football. His teams will play hard for 60 minutes and every team on the schedule with walk off the field knowing that they were involved in a heavyweight battle. I'm confident that Coach Dantonio will put Spartan football back on the national map. It's simply a matter of time."

ALABAMA HEAD COACH NICK SABAN:

"First, Mark Dantonio is a great family man. Second, he brings honesty and integrity to the Spartan football program — something Michigan State expects and deserves. In addition, Mark brings a wealth of knowledge and experience to the head coaching position."

"He's familiar with Michigan State, having spent six years there as an assistant coach. He's familiar with the Big Ten, having coached at Michigan State and Ohio State. More importantly, Mark has been involved with winning football programs, including being a part of a National Championship at Ohio State. He's also had an opportunity to run his own program at Cincinnati and his teams had a reasonable amount of success."

"While serving as an assistant at Michigan State, Mark was one of the top recruiters on the coaching staff. He knows the MSU academic and campus community. He also has ties to Ohio and other parts of the Midwest, which is so important in recruiting."

"Mark really has the right blend for Michigan State. This is a great opportunity for Michigan State, and I hope everyone gets behind Mark and pulls together."

ESPN COLOR ANALYST AND FORMER OHIO STATE ALL-AMERICAN CHRIS SPIELMAN:

"Mark Dantonio is the right man, for the right job at the right time. I predicted Mark's hire as soon as the position became available. When you look at the situation, this is a perfect hire. Mark has Michigan State bloodlines, so he's emotionally invested in the football program. Mark is a no-nonsense coach that demands attention to detail. I'm also convinced that his teams will play harder than any past Spartan football teams."

"Mark isn't the right guy if you're looking to hire a talk-show host, but he is the right guy if you're looking for a winning football coach."

FORMER SPARTAN QUARTERBACK BILL BURKE:

"I think Mark coming back is extremely important to former players. He alluded to the fact that he wants to be here, him and his family. He's a former Spartan, and he feels like he's coming home and we as former Spartans are excited to have him back. I think he's a tough disciplinarian as much off the field as he is on the field. He cares about you as a player, and I think he's going to bring back certain philosophies that Michigan State needs to have in place in order to produce wins on the field. His expectations are high, which they should be, and it's exciting as a former player to know that we have a guy here who wants to compete for championships. Mark is a very detail oriented guy, so you know as a player that you're going to be held accountable for everything on the field and off the field, and I think that is where the pursuit of championships starts."

DON TREADWELL
OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR/
WIDE RECEIVERS
FIRST SEASON

Don Treadwell, one of eight assistants to follow head coach Mark Dantonio from Cincinnati to Michigan State, is in his first season as offensive coordinator and wide receivers coach. Treadwell, a 23-year coaching veteran, has been an offensive coordinator at four schools, including the past three years on Coach Dantonio's staff at Cincinnati. Along with Dantonio, he also has experience in East Lansing, serving as the Spartan receivers coach from 2000-02.

Upon becoming Cincinnati's offensive coordinator in 2004, he put together a balanced offense that produced a 2,500-yard passer, 1,000-yard rusher and 1,000-yard receiver, while topping the 2,000-yard mark in both rushing (2,201) and passing (2,666), only the second time that feat had been accomplished in UC history. Working with the wide receivers, Treadwell tutored Hannibal Thomas, who compiled the fourth 1,000-yard receiving season by a Bearcat while earning all-conference honors. In addition, quarterback Gino Guidugli threw for 2,633 yards, the fifth-best single-season total in Bearcat history, while ranking 15th in the nation in passing efficiency (146.48 rating). Overall, Cincinnati ranked 30th in the country in total offense, averaging 405.6 yards a game.

Prior to Cincinnati, Treadwell served as offensive coordinator at Ball State in 2003, where he helped develop the Cardinal offense to school records for passing yards and passing TDs. During his three seasons at Michigan State, he tutored several top receivers, including Charles Rogers, the 2002 Biletnikoff Award winner and the No. 2 pick of the 2003 NFL Draft. Under Treadwell's tutelage, Rogers set MSU single-season receiving records in receptions, receiving yards and touchdown receptions, and left MSU as the second all-time receiver in school history with 2,821 yards in just two seasons. In 2001, Treadwell coached one of the nation's top receiving duos in Rogers and Herb Haygood, who combined for 124 receptions, 2,278 yards and 18 touchdowns. Haygood was selected by Denver in the fifth round (No. 144 overall) in the 2002 NFL Draft.

Treadwell came to Michigan State following one season at North Carolina State, where he coached the running backs in 1999. The Oberlin, Ohio, native previously spent two years at Boston College where he served as the co-offensive coordinator while also working with the quarterbacks and wide receivers. Treadwell coached running backs under Tyrone Willingham at Stanford from 1995-96. He directed a Cardinal rushing attack that racked up 1,819 yards in 1995 – the ninth-best single-season total in school history.

His full-time coaching credits also include one season as a wide receivers coach at Cincinnati (1994), a two-year stay with his alma mater Miami-Ohio (1992-93), and a five-year stint with Youngstown State (1986-91). Treadwell spent all of those seasons at Youngstown State under former head coach and current Ohio State head coach Jim Tressel, along with Coach Dantonio, who served as YSU's defensive coordinator from 1986-90. Treadwell worked with the wide receivers, running backs and quarterbacks at Youngstown State, and while serving as the offensive coordinator in 1991, he helped guide the Penguins to the NCAA I-AA National Championship. He also participated in the NFL's Minority Coaching Fellowship Program in 1989-90, working with the San Francisco 49ers.

Treadwell was a four-year starter at wide receiver at Miami-Ohio (1978-81), earning first-team All-Mid-American Conference honors as a junior. He had 73 career receptions for 1,540 yards, averaging a school-record 21.1 yards per catch.

He earned his bachelor's degree in physical education from Miami-Ohio in 1982.

Born June 10, 1960, Treadwell graduated from Oberlin High School in 1978 where he played quarterback.

Married to the former Lola Pinskey of Fostoria, Ohio, Treadwell and his wife have three children: Whitney (21), Blake (16) and Spencer (14).

PAT NARDUZZI
DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR
FIRST SEASON

Pat Narduzzi is in his first year as defensive coordinator at Michigan State. Narduzzi, who served as Mark Dantonio's defensive coordinator all three years at Cincinnati, developed a solid defensive unit during his tenure with the Bearcats.

Defense was the strong suit for UC in 2006, as Cincinnati ranked among the national leaders during the regular season in tackles for loss (No. 21 at 6.8 per game), pass efficiency defense (No. 23 at 109.3 rating), rushing defense (No. 27 at 107.5 ypg.), total defense (No. 31 at 304.3 ypg.), scoring defense (No. 34 at 19.3 ppg.) and sacks (No. 34 at 2.3 pg.). UC held seven of its 12 opponents to less than 100 yards rushing, highlighted by performances of 36 yards each in back-to-back games against Miami-Ohio and Akron. In UC's 30-11 win over then-No. 7 Rutgers on Nov. 18, the Bearcats held the nation's No. 20 rushing offense to a season-low 50 yards on the ground, and held the nation's No. 4 rusher, Ray Rice, to a season-low 54 yards. Middle linebacker Kevin McCullough led the team in tackles and ranked fifth in the BIG EAST with 13.5 tackles for loss. Defensive end Trevor Anderson ranked sixth in the BIG EAST in both tackles for loss (13.0) and sacks (6.0).

In his first season as defensive coordinator at UC in 2004, Narduzzi constructed the defense which led the Bearcats to a runner-up finish in Conference USA and a victory in the Fort Worth Bowl. The secondary ranked 26th in the nation and first in C-USA in pass defense. The Bearcats also ranked second in C-USA and 38th nationally in total defense, and third in the conference in scoring defense and pass efficiency defense. Three Bearcat defenders from that team: Trent Cole, Tyjuan Hagler and Daven Holly, were taken in the NFL Draft, while six others earned all-league recognition. UC's 2005 defense had as many as eight first-year freshman starters, and Narduzzi helped groom two of them, Mike Mickens and Corey Smith, to second-team All-BIG EAST and Freshman All-America honors.

Prior to his arrival in Cincinnati, Narduzzi was the architect of the Miami-Ohio defense in 2003 which helped the RedHawks to a No. 10 finish in the national polls, a Mid-American Conference championship and a win over Louisville in the GMAC Bowl. Miami-Ohio ranked first in the MAC in rushing defense (19th nationally), scoring defense (22nd nationally) and pass efficiency defense (34th nationally). The RedHawks also ranked second in the MAC and 35th nationally in total defense.

Narduzzi previously helped Northern Illinois to a pair of MAC divisional titles during his three seasons in DeKalb (2000-02) as linebackers coach. In 2002, the Huskies had the league's stingiest defense against the run and were ranked 38th nationally. Narduzzi coached with offensive line coach Dan Roushar for three seasons while he was at NIU.

Narduzzi, who has compiled 17 seasons of coaching experience, began his career at Miami-Ohio in 1990, serving two seasons as a graduate assistant and one as a receivers coach in 1992.

In 1993, he started a seven-year tenure at Rhode Island, and served as defensive coordinator from 1998-99. Narduzzi and Roushar also crossed paths at Rhode Island for one season (1993), when Narduzzi was coaching linebackers and Roushar was coaching the offensive line.

A Youngstown, Ohio, native, Narduzzi earned all-state football honors at Ursuline High School. He played for his father Bill Narduzzi at Youngstown State as a freshman in 1985 and led the Ohio Valley Conference in tackles. Narduzzi then transferred to Rhode Island and became a three-year starter linebacker for the Rams from 1987-89.

Narduzzi completed his bachelor's degree in physical education at Rhode Island in 1990 and later earned a master's degree in sports psychology at Miami-Ohio in 1992.

Narduzzi and his wife Donna have four children: Arianna (14), Christina (12), Patrick (9) and Isabella (5).

HARLON BARNETT
SECONDARY COACH
FIRST SEASON

Harlon Barnett, a four-year letterwinner at Michigan State (1986-89) as a defensive back who was named a captain as a senior, returns to East Lansing as secondary coach, with seven years of professional playing experience and nine seasons of coaching experience under his belt.

The 40-year-old Barnett spent the last three seasons as secondary coach on Mark Dantonio's staff at Cincinnati. In 2006, the Bearcats finished the regular season ranked third in the BIG EAST and No. 23 nationally in pass efficiency defense (109.3 rating). Barnett tutored two players that earned All-BIG EAST honors last season, in Dominic Ross (first team) and Mike Mickens (second team). During the regular season, Ross ranked third in the BIG EAST with four interceptions, while Mickens led the league in passes defended (17) and pass break-ups (15). In addition, Barnett worked with cornerback John Bowie, who was selected by the Oakland Raiders in the fourth round of the 2007 NFL Draft.

In 2005, Barnett aided in the rapid development of Mickens, who earned second-team All-BIG EAST and third-team Freshman All-America honors.

In his initial season on the Cincinnati coaching staff, the Bearcats led Conference USA and ranked No. 26 nationally in pass defense, allowing 194.2 yards per game in 2004. In addition, two members of the secondary, Daven Holly and Doug Monaghan, earned second-team All-Conference USA honors. Holly was selected by the San Francisco 49ers in the seventh round of the 2005 NFL Draft.

Barnett landed his first collegiate coaching job as a graduate assistant at LSU in 2003 under Nick Saban, where he was a part of the Tigers' National Championship campaign. He began his coaching career at Princeton High School in Cincinnati, where he spent two seasons as the secondary coach (1998-99) and three years as the defensive coordinator (2000-02).

A native of Cincinnati, Barnett was a three-year starter for Coach George Perles at Michigan State. He was a member of the 1987 Big Ten and 1988 Rose Bowl championship team that went 9-2-1 overall and finished eighth in the final polls. Barnett, who also played in the 1989 Gator Bowl and the 1989 Aloha Bowl during his time as a Spartan player, earned first-team All-America recognition by The Sporting News as a senior in 1989. He was a primary reason that the Green and White ranked No. 1 in the Big Ten and No. 11 nationally in both rushing defense (95.4 ypg.) and total defense (280.5 ypg.). He compiled 73 stops, high among Spartan defensive backs, along with three interceptions and three fumble recoveries. He finished his career with 154 tackles, six interceptions and 13 pass break-ups.

Following his impressive career at Michigan State, Barnett was taken in the fourth round of the 1990 NFL Draft by the Cleveland Browns, where he played for three seasons. He spent two seasons at New England (1993-94) and two more with Minnesota (1995-96).

Barnett earned his bachelor's degree in communication from Michigan State in 1990.

He and his wife Tammy have two children: Todd (13) and Tori (12).

DAN ENOS
RUNNING BACKS
SECOND SEASON

Dan Enos, a four-year football letterman (1987-90) and two-year starter (1989-90) at quarterback at Michigan State, is in his second year as a member of the Spartan coaching staff, his first season as running backs coach. The 39-year-old Enos begins his second stint as an assistant coach under Mark Dantonio, having previously served as the quarterbacks coach at Cincinnati from 2004-05.

In his role as quarterbacks coach in 2006, Enos mentored Drew Stanton, who earned team MVP honors after accounting for 2,252 total yards and 17 touchdowns as a senior. Stanton, who was selected by the Detroit Lions in the second round of the 2007 NFL Draft, finished his career ranked among MSU's all-time leaders in completion percentage (first at .642), pass completions (second at 543), pass attempts (second at 846), passing yards (second at 6,524), total offense (second at 8,036 yards), 200-yard passing games (second at 18), passing efficiency rating (third at 138.7) and TD passes (fifth at 42).

In 2005, his pupil Dustin Grutza became the first freshman quarterback to start a Cincinnati season opener (vs. Eastern Michigan) since World War II. Grutza, a red-shirt freshman, finished fourth in the BIG EAST Conference in total offense, averaging 165.0 yards per game.

In 2004, Enos helped hone the talents of Gino Guidugli, who closed out his career as Cincinnati's all-time passing leader with 11,222 yards. As a senior, Guidugli completed 210-of-342 throws (.614) for 2,633 yards and a school-record 26 touchdowns while leading the Bearcats to a 7-5 record, including a 32-14 victory over Marshall in the Fort Worth Bowl. Guidugli ranked fifth in Conference USA and No. 15 in the NCAA in passing efficiency with his 146.5 rating.

Enos spent the 2003 season as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach under Craig Bohl at NCAA Division II North Dakota State, where he designed an offensive attack that averaged 30.1 points per game en route to an 8-3 record. Tony Stauss hit 220-of-325 passes (.677) for 2,134 yards and 15 TDs. His 2,134 passing yards represent the second-highest single-season total in Bison history.

Prior to his appointment at North Dakota State, he worked for three years as the quarterbacks coach at Western Michigan (2000-02) under Gary Darnell. In 2002, the Broncos finished fifth in the Mid-American Conference and No. 30 nationally in passing offense, averaging 256.1 yards per game. In 2001, Western Michigan ranked third in the MAC and No. 30 in the NCAA in passing offense (257.8 ypg.). In 2000, the Broncos averaged 400.6 total yards and 29.9 points per game while posting a 9-3 record, including the MAC West Division crown. In addition, quarterback Jeff Welsh ranked fourth in the league in passing (211.4 ypg.) and total offense (212.8 ypg.).

In 1999, Enos served as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Southwest Missouri State (now Missouri State) under Randy Ball. The Bears ranked among the NCAA I-AA leaders in passing offense (No. 22 at 258.8 ypg.), scoring offense (No. 23 at 33.9 ppg.) and total offense (No. 30 at 417.8 ypg.). During his tenure at NIU, the Huskies earned a share of back-to-back Mid-American Conference West Division titles in 2001 and 2002. In his six years in DeKalb, NIU also produced four 1,000-yard rushers, including Michael Turner who finished second in the NCAA in rushing in 2002 while averaging 159.6 yards per game. In 2000, the Huskies ranked among the national leaders in rushing offense (No. 12 at 228.1 ypg.), total offense (No. 19 at 427.8 ypg.) and scoring offense (No. 12 at 37.2 points per game). Roushar helped develop three first-team All-MAC selections, in offensive tackle Ryan Diem (1999-2000), center McAllister Collins (2000) and offensive tackle Tim Vincent (2002). Diem, a fourth-round pick by the Indianapolis Colts in the 2001 NFL Draft, started 15 games at right tackle in 2006 for the Super Bowl Champions. While on the NIU coaching staff, Roushar also recruited offensive tackle Doug Free, who was taken by the Dallas Cowboys in the fourth round of the 2007 NFL Draft.

A two-year letterman as a quarterback at Northern Illinois under Hall of Fame coach Bill Mallory, Roushar launched his coaching career at his alma mater as a student assistant in 1984 while completing his bachelor's degree. Roushar spent seven seasons at Butler, the first three (1986-88) as offensive backfield coach and the final four (1989-92) as offensive coordinator and offensive line coach. The Bulldogs won five conference titles and made two Division II playoff appearances during his tenure.

The 46-year-old Roushar also has made coaching stops at Rhode Island (1993) and Ball State (1994), where he also served as offensive coordinator. During his first two-year stint at Illinois, he worked with the Illini quarterbacks in 1995 before taking over the offensive tackles and tight ends in 1996.

JOHN MACKLIN

An outstanding athlete at Pennsylvania, John Macklin succeeded Chester Brewer as Aggie coach. He was said to have stood about 6-5 and weighed around 250 pounds. Macklin won more than 85 percent of his games at MAC, compiling 29 victories in 34 contests. Among his greatest accomplishments were a 35-20 win over Ohio State in 1912, the first achieved by MAC over a Big Ten team; the school's first victory over Michigan, 12-7, in 1913; a 6-3 upset win against Penn State in 1914; and a 24-0 shutout of Michigan in 1915. Macklin died in 1949 at the age of 65.

GEORGE GAUTHIER

The first Michigan State alumnus to direct an Aggie team was George Gauthier, a quarterback under John Macklin in 1912 and '13. Though the record was only 4-3, his 1918 club produced one of the most astounding upsets in Aggie history, defeating Knute Rockne's first Notre Dame team which starred a sophomore back named George Gipp. A year after leaving MAC, Gauthier assumed duties as athletic director and head coach at Ohio Wesleyan, a dual position he held for 34 years. He died in 1964 at the age of 74.

GEORGE "POTSY" CLARK

George "Potsy" Clark, an All-America quarterback under the legendary Bob Zuppke at Illinois, served as MAC's coach for only one season. The Aggies had a losing record, but one of those victories was a record 109-0 rout of Olivet. Among his other stops in college coaching were at Minnesota and Butler. He also served as athletic director at Nebraska, 1945-1953. Clark is probably best known as head coach of the Detroit Lions that won the 1935 NFL title. He died in 1972 at the age of 78.

RALPH YOUNG

MSU RECORD: 18-22-1

An outstanding player for both Fielding Yost at Michigan and Amos Alonzo Stagg at Chicago, the roly-poly Ralph Young coached MAC and MSC with only moderate success. However, he brought stability to a program that badly needed it, laying the foundation on which the school's athletic structure grew. MAC nearly surprised powerful Michigan in its stadium dedication game of 1924, losing 7-0. Young, who also was a fine track and field coach, is best known for his success as State's athletic director, 1923-54. He died in 1962 at the age of 72.

MSU RECORD: 3-4-1

Michigan football All-American Harry Kipke directed the Spartans for only one season. A Lansing (Mich.) High School graduate, he began his coaching career with a 103-0 victory over Kalamazoo College, but highlights after that were few and far between. Kipke nearly directed State to an upset victory over his alma mater, and that performance probably enticed Michigan to hire him as its coach the very next season. He died in 1972 at the age of 73.

JIM CROWLEY

MSU RECORD: 22-8-3

Jim Crowley, one of Notre Dame's immortal Four Horsemen, joined Michigan State's staff as its head football coach in 1929. His arrival became the catalyst which transformed a mediocre program into a nationally-respected major power for the first time since the coaching era of John Macklin. "Sleepy Jim" produced four-straight winning seasons for the Spartans. A pair of 0-0 ties against Michigan in 1930 and '31 broke State's 14-game losing streak to the Wolverines, a span which saw UM outscore MSC by a total of 392-9. A night game loss at Georgetown spoiled the Spartans' otherwise undefeated season in 1930. He was named head coach at Fordham in 1933, becoming the architect of the "Seven Blocks of Granite." Crowley died in 1986 at the age of 83.

CHARLIE BACHMAN

Charlie Bachman, another Notre Dame alumnus, succeeded Jim Crowley as head football coach at Michigan State, coming to East Lansing after a successful stint at Florida. A teammate of Knute Rockne, Bachman employed the Notre Dame system and forged 10 winning seasons in 13 years. During his second season with the Spartans in 1934, he led State to an 8-1 record, which included a 16-0 victory over Michigan, the school's first since 1915. That marked the first of four-straight wins over UM. MSC posted another 8-1 regular-season record in 1937 and received the school's first bid to a postseason bowl game, the 1938 Orange Bowl. Among Bachman's greatest Spartan players were guard Sid Wagner, State's first All-American since 1915, halfback John Pingel and fullback Jack Breslin. Bachman died in 1985 at the age of 93.

CLARENCE "BIGGIE" MUNN

The most successful Spartan coach of all-time in terms of winning percentage (.857) is former Minnesota All-American Clarence "Biggie" Munn. He came to MSC directly from Syracuse where he served as head coach for only one season. Despite an inauspicious 55-0 drubbing from Michigan in his Spartan debut, Munn quickly turned things around as the team ended the 1947 campaign with a 7-2 record. Workman-like progress continued the next two seasons, but then the Spartans burst onto the national scene in 1950, finishing in the Top 10 in the final wire service polls with an 8-1 mark that included victories over third-ranked Michigan and Notre Dame. Munn compiled a 27-1 worksheet over the next three years, winning back-to-back national championships in 1951 and '52 with identical 9-0 records. In 1952, Munn earned national Coach of the Year honors from the American Football Coaches Association after the Spartans produced wins over three ranked opponents, including No. 17 Penn State, No. 8 Purdue and No. 6 Notre Dame. MSC ran its winning streak to 28-straight games in 1953 before losing at Purdue, 6-0. In their first season of competition in the Big Ten, the Spartans grabbed a share of the 1953 league championship with a 5-1 record. MSC posted its third consecutive 9-win season in 1953, thanks to its 28-20 victory over UCLA in the 1954 Rose Bowl. In seven seasons at MSC, Munn produced 18 All-Americans, including the great two-way tackle Don Coleman. He was voted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1959. About a week after his team's Rose Bowl victory, Munn stepped down from coaching to assume the duties as MSC's athletics director. He served in that capacity for 18 years, building the Spartans into a nationally prominent football program. In 1971, a stroke forced Munn to retire from MSU and four years later in 1975, he died at the age of 66.

HUGH DUFFY DAUGHERTY

One of the most popular coaches in the history of college football was Michigan State's personable Duffy Daugherty. An undergraduate star for Syracuse, he was a member of Biggie Munn's staff there in 1946 when State hired Munn. Daugherty served initially as line coach at MSU, tutoring such Spartan standouts as Don Coleman and Frank Kush. Then, following State's 1954 Rose Bowl victory over UCLA, Munn stepped in as athletic director and named Duffy as head coach. Daugherty's '55 club went 9-1 and received the Big Ten's Rose Bowl bid, defeating UCLA, 17-14. His greatest teams, though, came in 1965 and '66 when those two star-studded squads posted a cumulative record of 19-1-1 and two Big Ten championships. The only loss was a 14-12 defeat at the hands of UCLA in the 1966 Rose Bowl and the lone tie was the monumental 10-10 "Game of the Century" vs. Notre Dame in '66. Duffy's 1965 Spartans were a defensive juggernaut and won the No. 1 ranking in the final UPI poll. During Duffy's 19 seasons at MSU, 29 different players earned first-team All-America honors. The list included such stars as Earl Morrall, Sherman Lewis, George Webster, Clinton Jones, Gene Washington, Bubba Smith, Brad Van Pelt and Billy Joe DuPree. Daugherty's individual honors included National Coach of the Year laurels in both 1955 and '65, and induction into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1984. Duffy died in 1987 at the age of 72, in Santa Barbara, Calif.

DENNY STOLZ

MSU RECORD: 19-13-1

Denny Stolz, defensive coordinator under Duffy Daugherty, was the 16th man to direct Spartan football fortunes. The graduate and former head coach at Alma College started off slowly at MSU, but soon built the Spartans into a Big Ten challenger. Stolz' second club finished a half-game behind Michigan and Ohio State in the 1974 Big Ten standings, earning him conference Coach of the Year honors. The highlight that year was an unforgettable upset victory over the top-ranked Buckeyes at Spartan Stadium. His final MSU team tied for third in the conference standings with the major accomplishment an upset victory at Notre Dame. Stolz left MSU following the 1975 season. He coached at Bowling Green State, 1977-85, and then served as head coach at San Diego State, 1986-88.

DARRYL ROGERS

MSU RECORD: 24-18-2

Darryl Rogers joined the Spartan football staff following stints at Hayward State and San Jose State in California. Like the two men who preceded him at Michigan State, Rogers' first team struggled a bit, but he bounced back big in season number two. The Spartans, who set a conference record for offensive proficiency, finished a half-game behind Michigan and Ohio State with a 6-1-1 Big Ten record. In 1978, MSU shared the Big Ten title with the Wolverines, earning Rogers Big Ten Coach of the Year honors. NCAA probation prohibited State from going to the Rose Bowl. Following the 1979 season, he left MSU for the head coaching position at Arizona State, 1980-84. Following his stint with the Sun Devils, Rogers signed as head coach of the Detroit Lions, 1985-88. During the 1991 season, he served as the head coach of the Winnipeg Blue Bombers of the Canadian Football League. He served as the athletic director at Southern Connecticut State for 10 years, retiring in 2003.

FRANK "MUDDY" WATERS

MSU RECORD: 10-23-0

Frank "Muddy" Waters became only the second former Michigan State player to coach the Spartans. The personable coach was named head man at MSU one day before his 57th birthday, following a highly successful career at Hillsdale College and Saginaw Valley State. Waters compiled a 138-46-5 record in 20 seasons at Hillsdale (1954-73) and a 25-26-2 mark in five years at Saginaw Valley (1975-79), while building the program from scratch. Three Spartans — Ray Stachowicz, Morten Andersen and James Burroughs — won All-America honors during Muddy's tenure at MSU. Thanks to his contributions to small college football in Michigan, Waters was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2000. He died in 2006 at the age of 83.

GEORGE PERLES

MSU RECORD: 68-67-4

Former Spartan gridder and assistant coach George Perles saw his dream of becoming head coach of the MSU football program come true when he was named to the position on Dec. 3, 1982. After posting just 10 wins in three seasons prior to his arrival, Perles helped return MSU to national prominence with two bowl appearances in his first three seasons. In 1987, Perles and the Spartans captured the Big Ten title and made the program's first Rose Bowl appearance since 1966. The Spartans topped USC, 20-17, ending the year at 9-2-1, the most victories by an MSU squad since 1966, along with a No. 8 national ranking. His efforts that season earned him Football News' Coach of the Year honors. The Rose Bowl began a string of four-straight bowl appearances which included triumphs in the 1989 Aloha and '90 John Hancock Bowls. The architect of the dominating Pittsburgh Steelers' defense during the Super Bowl years (1974-75-78-79), 50 of his players were selected in the NFL Draft, including nine first-rounders. He guided the Spartans to a Big Ten slate of 53-42-3, and to seven bowl games. In 2007, Perles was inducted into the Western Chapter of the Pennsylvania Sports Hall of Fame and the MSU Athletics Hall of Fame. (Career record reflects five 1994 wins forfeited by MSU as part of 1996 self-imposed sanctions.)

NICK SABAN

Nick Saban became the 20th head football coach in MSU history on Dec. 3, 1994, following a highly successful NFL stint with the Cleveland Browns. As the Browns' defensive coordinator, he led the NFL's stingiest scoring defense in 1994 as that unit allowed the sixth-fewest points in league history. His winning ways continued at Michigan State, as he promptly became the first Spartan coach to lead his teams to bowl games in each of his first three seasons, including the 1995 Independence, '96 Sun and '97 Aloha Bowls. The Spartans returned to national prominence in 1999, going 9-2, and earning a trip to the 2000 Florida Citrus Bowl. Prior to the bowl game, Saban left to take the head coaching job at LSU. Saban previously coached at MSU, serving as an assistant coach from 1983-87, helping the Spartans to the 1987 Big Ten and '88 Rose Bowl championships.

BOBBY WILLIAMS

Bobby Williams became the 21st head coach in Spartan history when he assumed control of the team on Dec. 5, 1999, after Nick Saban left for LSU. Prior to taking over as head coach, Williams coached Michigan State's running backs for 10 years. He made his head-coaching debut on Jan. 1, 2000, and led the Spartans to a last-second victory over No. 10 Florida, 37-34, in the Florida Citrus Bowl. With MSU's 44-35 triumph over No. 20 Fresno State in the 2001 Silicon Valley Football Classic, Williams became the first head coach in Spartan football history to win his first two bowl games.

MORRIS WATTS

Michigan State veteran offensive coordinator Morris Watts served as interim head coach for the final three games of the 2002 season. Watts made his head-coaching debut on Nov. 9, 2002, and led the Spartans to a 56-21 victory at Indiana, snapping a four-game losing streak. He became the 11th head coach in school history to produce a win in his Spartan debut. Watts enjoyed three stints as MSU's offensive coordinator, holding that position for a total of 12 seasons (1986-90, 1992-94 and 1999-2002). He returned to Michigan State in 1999 following a four-year tenure as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at LSU (1995-98).

Michigan State scored 19 unanswered points in the second half en route to a 28-24 upset victory over top-ranked and previously undefeated Ohio State in Columbus on Nov. 7, 1998. It marked the Spartans' first win over a top-ranked team since beating Michigan in 1990.

JOHN L. SMITH

John L. Smith became Michigan State University's 23rd head football coach on Dec. 19, 2002. Smith, who inherited a team that went 4-8 in 2002, produced an 8-4 regular-season record in 2003 and earned Dave McClain (Big Ten) Coach of the Year honors. His eight wins marked the most by a first-year coach in Spartan history. Smith came to Michigan State following five seasons at Louisville (1998-2002) where he put together a 41-21 worksheet (.661), including five straight bowl appearances and back-to-back C-USA titles in 2000-01. He posted a 16-18 ledger (.471) in three seasons at Utah State (1995-97) while leading the Aggies to consecutive Big West Conference crowns in 1996-97. His six-year mark of 53-21 (.716) at Idaho (1989-94) included five NCAA I-AA playoff appearances and five Top 20 finishes. Twelve of his 18 teams participated in postseason play.

Paul Bunyan Trophy

Since 1953, the winner of the Michigan State-Michigan game has been presented the Paul Bunyan Trophy. The four-foot wooden statue was donated by then-Governor G. Mennen Williams to mark Michigan State's acceptance into the Big Ten. Since '53, Michigan leads the series 33-19-2. The trophy depicts the legendary giant lumberjack astride an axe with feet planted on a map of the state with flags representing the schools.

Megaphone Trophy

Since 1949, the winner of the Michigan State-Notre Dame game has been presented the Megaphone Trophy, sponsored jointly by the Detroit alumni clubs of both schools. The megaphone is printed half blue, with a gold ND monogram, and half white, with a green MSC. All previous game scores are listed on the trophy. Michigan State and Notre Dame played 36 consecutive seasons from 1959-94 until the two-year interruption of the series in 1995-96. The current series contract runs through the 2011 season.

Old Brass Spittoon

Since 1950, the winner of the Michigan State-Indiana game has been presented the Old Brass Spittoon. The trophy was initiated by the junior and senior classes and the MSU student council at Michigan State, and soon accepted by the IU Student Senate. The brass spittoon came from one of Michigan's earliest trading posts and is widely believed to be nearly 150 years old. Legend has it that the spittoon was around when both institutions were founded Indiana: in 1820 and MAC in 1855. Since '50, Michigan State leads the series 38-12-1.

Land-Grant Trophy

Since the renewal of the series in 1993, the winner of the Michigan State-Penn State game has been presented the Land-Grant Trophy. The trophy honors the two universities' unique places in history as the two pioneer land-grant schools in the nation. Each institution was founded in 1855, Michigan State on Feb. 12 and Penn State on Feb. 22. The schools were the prototypes after which the land-grant system was patterned. The trophy features pictures of campus landmarks, Michigan State's Beaumont Tower and Penn State's Old Main, plus replicas of the Spartan and Nittany Lion. Since 1993, Penn State leads the series 11-3.

FLOZELL ADAMS #76

OT | 6-7 | 330
BELLWOOD, ILL.

Flozell Adams captured first-team All-America recognition as picked by the Walter Camp Foundation as a senior in 1997. The '97 Big Ten Offensive Lineman of the Year, Adams started all 12 games at left tackle and helped the Spartans to a No. 24 spot nationally in rushing offense (199.5 ypg.). He also opened holes for MSU running backs who tallied 100 or more yards seven times during the season. At 6-foot-7, 330 pounds, Adams allowed only two sacks and recorded 37 pancakes. He was drafted in the second round by the Dallas Cowboys in the 1998 NFL Draft.

ERIC ALLEN #24

TB | 5-9 | 161
GEORGETOWN, S.C.

Eric Allen brought home All-America honors his senior year in 1971 as chosen by the American Football Coaches Association. Allen rushed for a Big Ten-leading 1,494 yards in overall action, an MSU seasonal record that stood until 1985. In addition, Allen's 1,283 yards on the ground in league contests established a Big Ten mark, as did his 110 points, making him the first player in Big Ten history to crack the century mark. Allen broke two NCAA records, four Big Ten marks and nine MSU records in '71. His greatest game came against Purdue when he rushed for an NCAA-record 350 yards on 29 carries, a record that stood until 1978. Named the Big Ten's MVP in '71, he rushed for 100 or more yards on seven occasions and his 18 TDs represented school and Big Ten records. Career-wise, he finished as MSU's all-time leader in rushing attempts (521) and rushing yards (2,654). Drafted by the Baltimore Colts in the fourth round of the 1972 NFL Draft, he signed with the Toronto Argonauts of the CFL.

MORTEN ANDERSEN #8

PK | 6-2 | 195
STREUR, DENMARK

Morten Andersen was an All-America honoree his senior year in 1981 as chosen by The Sporting News, United Press and the Walter Camp Foundation. He was MSU's leading scorer with 73 points on 28 PATs and 15 field goals (20 att.). He set a school and Big Ten record when he drilled a 63-yard field goal against Ohio State. In addition, opponents returned just 17 of his 56 kickoffs. Andersen closed out his college career ranked No. 1 on the MSU and Big Ten lists in field goals with 45 while holding down the top spot on the school's all-time chart in PATs (126) and total points (261). He recorded seven field goals of 50 or more yards and three others of 49 yards. Picked by the New Orleans Saints in the fourth round of the 1982 NFL Draft.

BOB APISA #45

FB | 6-1 | 212
HONOLULU, HAWAII

Bob Apisa was an All-America selection as a sophomore in 1965 by Football News and his junior year in 1966 by Football News and the New York News. In '65, despite missing most of the last three games due to a knee injury, he rushed for 666 yards, then the best seasonal mark turned in by a Spartan fullback, along with nine TDs. In 1966, Apisa once again was hampered by knee problems, but rushed for 445 yards and eight six-pointers. His career-high 140 yards on the ground against Michigan in a 20-7 victory earned him UPI Back of the Week honors. He finished his career as MSU's most prolific rushing fullback with 1,343 yards in 262 attempts. A ninth-round pick of the Green Bay Packers in the '68 NFL Draft.

ED BAGDON #65

G | 5-10 | 200
DEARBORN, MICH.

Ed Bagdon garnered All-America status as a senior in 1949 as chosen by Look, United Press, The Sporting News, New York News, Central Press, Newspaper Enterprise Association and Tele-News. The recipient of the 1949 Outland Trophy as the nation's top interior lineman, he was part of a group known as "Duffy's Toughies" who knocked holes in opposing defenses from his guard position for Spartan backs. He developed a peculiar, but effective, shoulder brush-type block that took tacklers out of the play, but permitted him to keep on his feet and on the move. Named team captain in 1949, he started every game during his varsity career. Following his stint at MSU, he played professionally with the Chicago Cardinals and Washington Redskins.

CARL BANKS #54

OLB | 6-6 | 235
FLINT, MICH.

Carl Banks earned All-America honors as a senior in 1983 from the Associated Press, United Press and The Sporting News. Named the Spartans' MVP that season, he recorded 86 tackles, despite opponents rarely running to his side of the field, while closing out his career with 279 hits. Named as college football's linebacker of the year by the Columbus Touchdown Club, he was named first-team All-Big Ten three times and was MSU's first non-kicker to be named to the all-league team more than twice. He was taken in the first round (third player overall) by the New York Giants in the '84 NFL Draft. In 1996, he was selected as a member of the MSU Centennial Super Squad as picked in a poll conducted by the Lansing State Journal.

HARLON BARNETT #36

CB | 6-0 | 192
CINCINNATI, OHIO

Harlon Barnett captured first-team All-America recognition as picked by The Sporting News as a senior in 1989. He was a primary reason that the Green and White ranked No. 1 in the Big Ten and No. 11 nationally in both rushing defense (95.4 ypg.) and total defense (280.5 ypg.). He compiled 73 stops, high among Spartan DBs, along with three pass interceptions and three fumble recoveries. One of his pass thefts was a 35-yard return for a TD against No. 2-ranked Miami. He finished his career with 154 tackles, six interceptions and 13 pass break-ups. He was chosen in the fourth round by the Cleveland Browns in the 1990 draft.

DAVE BEHRMAN #51

OG | 6-4 | 265
DOWAGIAC, MICH.

Dave Behrman was an All-America pick as a junior in 1961 as selected by the Associated Press and Football Writers Association and his senior year by CBS-TV. Nicknamed "The Big Bear," the 6-foot-4, 265-pounder dominated opponents with his strength. He ranked No. 2 on the club in minutes in 1961 and logged 297 minutes as a senior when he concentrated on his center position. His versatility enabled him to play tackle, guard and center during his career. Drafted in the first round by both the Buffalo Bills and the Chicago Bears, he played for the Bills from 1963-67.

LEROY BOLDEN #39

HB | 5-7 | 163
FLINT, MICH.

LeRoy Bolden distinguished himself as an All-American his junior season in 1953 as picked by NBC-TV. Bolden paced the squad in rushing with 691 yards and scoring with 48 points. His running helped MSU to a Rose Bowl appearance in the school's first year of Big Ten play, especially in games against Minnesota and No. 16-ranked Ohio State where he registered three TDs vs. both foes while rushing for 145 and 128 yards, respectively. An all-around performer, he was a standout in the secondary and on special teams as a returner. At the conclusion of his career, he stood No. 2 on the school's all-time list in total touchdowns (26) and total points (156).

MARK BRAMMER #91

TE | 6-4 | 225
TRAVERSE CITY, MICH.

Mark Brammer landed All-America honors as a junior in 1978 as selected by the Football Writers Association, the only Big Ten gridders to earn that distinction that season. He grabbed 33 aerials for 360 yards and two TDs in '78, and was a key part of MSU's most productive offense ever—ranking No. 1 in the Big Ten in passing, scoring (No. 3 nationally at 37.4 ppg.) and total offense (No. 3 nationally at 481.3 ypg.). Started every game from his sophomore through senior years. Finished his career No. 3 on the school's all-time receptions list with 107. Picked by the Buffalo Bills in the third round of the 1980 NFL Draft.

ART BRANDSTATTER #31

FB | 5-11 | 175
ECORSE, MICH.

Art Brandstatter drew All-America acclaim as a senior in 1936 as selected by the All-American Board. Brandstatter was part of a Michigan State program that compiled a 20-4-2 record during his varsity career. He was selected to the 1961 Silver Anniversary All-America Team by Sports Illustrated. One of his great moments took place in 1935 when a 59-yard run in the fourth quarter against highly-ranked Temple set up the winning TD in a 12-7 decision.

ALLEN BRENNER #86
DB | 6-1 | 194
NILES, MICH.

Allen Brenner was named an All-American as a senior in 1968 by the American Football Coaches and the Newspaper Enterprise Association. His final year as a Spartan saw him record 63 tackles while coming up with a team-high eight touchdown saving hits, including three vs. Notre Dame (the last one of which was a fumble-jarring hit on Notre Dame's Terry Hanratty on MSU's 2-yard line on fourth-and-goal), which preserved a 21-17 upset win. A fine two-way player, Brenner hauled in 25 pass receptions, while playing a total of 449 minutes out of 600. Named team MVP in '68, he finished his career No. 2 on MSU's all-time list in receptions (73) and receiving yards (1,232). One of two sophomore starters on the Spartans' 1966 national championship team, he set a school record (which still stands) when he returned a punt 95 yards for a TD against Illinois in his first Big Ten game. He was drafted by the New York Giants in the seventh round of the 1969 NFL Draft. In 1996, he was named to the MSU Centennial Super Squad.

ED BUDDE #79
OT | 6-4 | 243
DETROIT, MICH.

Ed Budde was afforded All-America accolades as a senior in 1962 as picked by Time Magazine. Possessing both fine agility and speed, his blocking prowess helped MSU to a No. 2 national ranking in total rushing yardage. Following his senior year, he was the captain of the 1963 College All-Star team that defeated the Green Bay Packers. A first-round draft pick of both the Dallas Stars of the American Football League and the Philadelphia Eagles of the NFL, he enjoyed a 14-year career with the Kansas City Chiefs, earning All-Pro recognition seven times.

JAMES BURROUGHS #28
CB | 6-1 | 190
PAHOKEE, FLA.

James Burroughs captured All-America honors as a senior in 1981 as picked by The Sporting News. After sitting out the 1980 season due to academic reasons, he bounced back in strong fashion to post 46 tackles while registering a then-MSU single-season record of 13 pass break-ups. Burroughs was part of a Spartan defense that ranked No. 1 in the Big Ten in pass defense in 1981. He was a first-team All-Big Ten choice as picked by the league's coaches in 1981. He finished his collegiate career with 119 tackles and held the school record for pass break-ups with 28. Picked in the third round by Buffalo in the 1982 NFL Draft.

ROBERT CAREY #88
E | 6-5 | 215
CHARLEVOIX, MICH.

A great all-around athlete, Robert Carey was selected as an All-American as a senior in 1951 by the Associated Press, United Press, The Sporting News, Newspaper Enterprise Association, New York News and the All-American Board. MSU's leading receiver for three-straight years, he hauled in 20 aeriels for 263 yards and three TDs in '51. Career-wise, he finished with 65 receptions for 1,074 yards and 14 TDs, with all three totals representing then school career records. In MSU's 24-20 come-from-behind win at Ohio State, Carey caught four passes for 50 yards, converted three PATs and made a 24-yard field goal. Against Colorado, in his final collegiate game, he caught five passes for 104 yards and two touchdowns in a 45-7 win. He is just one of 10 athletes in the history of MSU to have earned nine varsity letters. He played professionally with the Los Angeles Rams and Chicago Bears. In 1996, he was named to MSU's Centennial Super Squad (Pre-Big Ten Era).

LYNN CHANDNOIS #14
HB | 6-2 | 195
FLINT, MICH.

Lynn Chandnois was an All-America pick as a senior in 1949 as chosen by the International News Service, United Press, Central Press, Football News and Collier's. One of the great two-way performers of his day, Chandnois rushed for a school-record 885 yards on 129 carries. Chandnois also intercepted seven enemy pass attempts, returning those thefts a total of 183 yards (tops in the nation). He paced the club in scoring with 60 points and rushed for over 100 yards in four contests that season, including a career-high 163 yards against Arizona. In the 75-0 win over the Wildcats, he sprinted 90 yards for a TD, still the longest rushing play in Spartan history. He played 55 minutes or better in six games while going all 60 in two outings. He closed out his career in the No. 1 spot in a variety of career categories at MSU, including rushing with 2,093 yards, total touchdowns with 31 (currently No. 4) and in points with 186. His 20 career interceptions are still the all-time MSU standard as is his 384 pass interception return yards. A No. 1 pick of the Pittsburgh Steelers, he played with that franchise until 1957.

DEANDRA COBB #21
KR | 5-10 | 186
LAS VEGAS, NEV.

Deandra Cobb, a first-team All-America selection by Collegefootballnews.com, led the Big Ten and ranked No. 11 in the NCAA in kickoff returns with his 27.2-yard average in 2003. His 763 kickoff return yards rank fourth on Michigan State's single-season chart. Cobb returned five kickoffs for 167 yards (33.4 avg.) vs. Ohio State, including a 93-yard runback for a touchdown in the third quarter. It marked the first kickoff return for a TD allowed by the Buckeyes since 1984 when Michigan State's Larry Jackson returned a kick 93 yards. Cobb set a Spartan single-season record with his third runback for a score, breaking the mark (two TDs) previously shared by Herb Haygood (2001), Derrick Mason (1995) and Derek Hughes (1979). His three kickoff returns for TDs also tied the NCAA I-A single-season record shared by Texas A&M's Leeland McElroy (1993), New Mexico's Terance Mathis (1989), Tennessee's Willie Gault (1980), Southern Cal's Anthony Davis (1974), Purdue's Stan Brown (1970) and San Francisco's Forrest Hall (1946). The 5-foot-10, 186-pound Cobb also scored on kickoff returns of 100 yards vs. Minnesota and 94 yards vs. Rutgers. His 100-yard runback against Minnesota tied the Spartan record for longest return (Herb Haygood vs. Iowa, 2001; Derrick Mason vs. LSU, 1995, and Penn State, 1994; and Derek Hughes vs. Oregon, 1979). In two seasons (2003-04), Cobb returned 64 kickoffs for 1,632 yards and four TDs. His career 25.5-yard kickoff return average ranks sixth on the Big Ten's all-time list. He was selected by the Atlanta Falcons in the sixth round of the 2005 NFL Draft.

DON COLEMAN #78

RETIRED JERSEY NUMBERS

Only four jersey numbers have been retired in the 110-year history of Michigan State football: No. 78 worn by All-America tackle Don Coleman, No. 90 worn by All-America roverbback George Webster, No. 46 in honor of former MSU President John Hannah and No. 95 worn by All-America defensive end Charles "Bubba" Smith.

Spartan head coach Biggie Munn (1947-53) pulled Coleman's No. 78 out of circulation in 1952. Munn called Coleman, a consensus All-American in 1951, "the finest lineman ever to play for Michigan State." Coleman was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1975.

Webster, a two-time All-American, had his No. 90 retired by head coach Duffy Daugherty in 1967. "George Webster is not only the finest football player I've ever seen but he symbolizes our great 1965 and '66 teams." Webster was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1987.

Daugherty retired the No. 46 in 1969 as a tribute to Dr. Hannah, who stepped down after 46 years of service to the University including 28 years as its president (1941-69). Hannah championed Michigan State's acceptance into the Big Ten Conference in 1949. Former Spartan head coach and athletics director George Perles said, "John Hannah is the greatest legend in the history of Michigan State. He is the person who made MSU the great school it is today."

On Sept. 23, 2006, Smith became just the third player in Michigan State football history to have his jersey number (No. 95) retired. His jersey retirement was part of a special program to commemorate the 40th anniversary of the 1966 "Game of the Century" between the second-ranked Spartans and top-ranked Notre Dame that ended in a 10-10 tie.

AUBURN	0	6	0	0	6

The fourth annual Orange Bowl game wasn't nearly as close as the final score might indicate as Auburn dominated play on both sides of the football in recording a shutout victory, 6-0, over Michigan State. It still ranks as the lowest-scoring game in Orange Bowl history. Auburn wasted two scoring opportunities in the first quarter. Jimmy Fenton's 25-yard run gave the Tigers a first-and-10 at the MSU 12 but the Spartan defense responded by stuffing three-straight running plays and Lyle Rockenbach broke up Fenton's fourth-down pass. Tom McShannock's interception and 29-yard return ended Auburn's second scoring threat. The game's only touchdown came in the second quarter and it was set up by George Kenmore's 28-yard pass to Ralph O'Gwynne to the MSU 2. Auburn fullback Pel Sitz netted only 1 yard on three carries before O'Gwynne scored on a 1-yard run around left end on fourth-and-goal. The Tigers had several chances in the second half to break the game open. Auburn turned the ball over on downs at the MSU 16 in the third quarter after Dutch Heath's 12-yard interception return to the MSU 24. Michigan State failed to record a first down until late in the third quarter when Ed Pearce broke a 29-yard run. Auburn drove inside the MSU 30 twice in the fourth quarter but failed to put points on the scoreboard. The Spartans' only other first down came on a 23-yard pass from John Pingel to Usif Haney midway through the fourth quarter. Auburn outgained Michigan State in total yards, 278-67. Fenton and Speck Kelly combined for 137 of the Tigers' 197 rushing yards, gaining 76 and 61 yards, respectively. Auburn held Pingel, MSU's All-America halfback, to 12 yards rushing on seven carries. A sellout crowd of nearly 19,000 attended the game at Miami's brand-new $360,000 Roddy Burdine Stadium.

Billy Wells ran for one touchdown and returned a punt for another score to lead No. 3 Michigan State to a 28-20 victory over No. 5 UCLA in the 1954 Rose Bowl. UCLA jumped out to a 14-0 lead, capitalizing on two Spartan turnovers. Midway through the first quarter, Jim Salsbury recovered a fumble on the MSU 37 and six plays later, Paul Cameron hit Bill Stits with a 13-yard TD strike to give the Bruins a 7-0 lead. Early in the second quarter, Hardiman Cureton and Bob Long combined to sack Spartan QB Earl Morrall, who fumbled, and Cureton fell on it at the MSU 18. Seven plays later, Cameron scored on a 2-yard run off left tackle. The momentum changed midway through the second quarter when Ellis Duckett blocked Cameron's punt from the UCLA 25 and returned it 6 yards for a touchdown as the Spartans cut the deficit to 14-7 at halftime. The Spartans dominated play in the third quarter. Michigan State took the second-half kickoff and drove 78 yards in 14 plays with LeRoy Bolden scoring on a 1-yard dive to tie the game at 14. Wishbone quarterback Nate Sassaman rushed for 136 yards on 28 carries to lead Army, making its first-ever bowl appearance, to a 10-6 triumph over Michigan State in the 1984 Cherry Bowl. Michigan State had an early scoring chance after Phil Parker intercepted a rare Army pass and returned it 18 yards to the Cadet 43. Three plays netted only 8 yards and Ralf Mojsiejenko's 52-yard field-goal attempt missed wide left. The Spartans put together a nine-play, 58-yard drive but early in the second quarter on third-and-goal from the Army 5, Dave Yarema's pass was intercepted in the end zone by Kermit McKelvy. A Michigan State fumble near midfield led to Army's only touchdown. Cadet Clarence Jones capped off an eight-play, 46-yard drive with a 4-yard run off right tackle to give Army a 7-0 lead with 6:41 left in the first half. Early in the third quarter, Sassaman rushed eight times for 37 yards during a 14-play, 49-yard drive, but Craig Stopa's 32-yard field-goal try went wide right. Army converted a Spartan fumble into a field goal and a 10-0 lead in the fourth quarter as a 15-play, 59-yard drive produced a 38-yard field goal by Stopa with 8:40 remaining. A Cadet fumble gave Michigan State life as Tom Allan recovered the ball at the MSU 49. Three plays later, Yarema found Bob Wasczenski in the left corner of the end zone with a 36-yard TD strike. The two-point pass attempt failed and Michigan State trailed 10-6 with 4:19 left. Army gained 256 yards rushing on 71 attempts while controlling the clock for 34:05. The Cadets sacked Yarema six times and picked off three of his passes, including two by Doug Pavек.

Courtney Hawkins accounted for 216 all-purpose yards and caught a touchdown pass to lead No. 22 Michigan State to a 17-16 win over No. 21 Southern Cal in the 1990 Sun Bowl. MSU dodged a bullet early as Mike Iaquaniello intercepted a Todd Marinovich pass in the end zone on USC's first series. Late in the first quarter, the Trojans put together an eight-play, 60-yard drive to take a 7-0 lead on Marinovich's 7-yard pass to Gary Wellman. After a Spartan fumble, USC was again knocking on the door, but on a fourth-and-inches play from inside the MSU 1, Marinovich mishandled the snap from center and Alan Haller recovered the fumble in the end zone for a touchback. MSU took advantage of the turnover and Hyland Hickson capped a 10-play, 80-yard drive with an 18-yard TD run with 2:22 left in the first half. USC opened the second half with an 18-play, 80-yard drive that lasted nine minutes but it had to settle for a 20-yard field goal from Quin Rodriguez. The Spartans responded by scoring 10-straight points. On a third-and-13 play from the MSU 26, Dan Enos hit Hawkins on a post pattern for a 41-yard gain and a first down at the USC 33. Four plays later, Hawkins scored on a 21-yard pass from Enos that gave MSU its first lead at 14-10. Freddie Wilson's interception at the USC 34 late in the third quarter led to a 52-yard field goal by John Langeloh as the Spartans built a 17-10 advantage. The Trojans got field goals of 54 and 43 yards from Rodriguez in the fourth quarter to cut the deficit to 17-16. MSU iced the game with two rushing first downs in the final three minutes. Hawkins caught six passes for 106 yards and a score to earn Sun Bowl MVP honors. Enos connected on nine-of-17 throws for 131 yards, including eight-straight completions during one stretch.

Michigan State's only touchdown came on the game's first series. Spartan QB Jim Miller started with a hot hand, hitting all four pass attempts for 50 yards on the first series. Louisville also scored on its first possession as an eight-play, 56-yard march ended with David Akers' 31-yard field goal. Midway through the second quarter, the Spartans missed out on a scoring chance when Bill Stoyanovich misfired on a 31-yard field-goal attempt. Louisville put together a 14-play, 74-yard drive in the third quarter, but failed to put points on the scoreboard as Akers missed a 23-yard field-goal try. Brohm directed a seven-play, 59-yard drive for the go-ahead score early in the fourth quarter, hitting Reggie Ferguson on a crossing pattern for a 25-yard TD pass. A 24-yard interception return by Darius Watson gave Louisville the ball back at the MSU 33 but seven plays later, the Spartan defense stopped Anthony Shelman short of the goal line on fourth-and-1. The Cardinals got two points back on the next play as Joe Johnson and Tyrus McCloud tackled Spartan tailback Craig Thomas in his own end zone for a safety. Louisville iced the game with a seven-play, 54-yard drive as Ralph Dawkins scored on an 11-yard sweep around right end.

Paul Edinger kicked a 39-yard field goal as time expired to give No. 9 Michigan State a 37-34 victory over No. 10 Florida in the 2000 Florida Citrus Bowl. It marked Michigan State's first New Year's Day bowl victory since the 1988 Rose Bowl and it ended a four-game losing streak in postseason play. There were five lead changes in the contest. The Spartans opened the scoring as an eight-play, 36-yard drive resulted in a 46-yard field goal by Edinger. Florida took a 7-3 lead as Travis Taylor scored on a 12-yard toss from Doug Johnson. Michigan State jumped out to a 17-7 lead in the second quarter on Bill Burke's 37-yard TD strike to Plaxico Burress and a 24-yard fumble return by T.J. Turner. The Gators pulled to within 17-14 on Johnson's 8-yard TD pass to Taylor. Edinger's second field goal, a 20-yarder, gave the Spartans a 20-14 lead, but Johnson scored on a 1-yard sneak to put Florida ahead at the half, 21-20. Burke directed a 10-play, 84-yard drive late in the third quarter, hooking up with Burress for a 21-yard scoring pass as MSU grabbed a 26-21 lead. Florida built a 34-26 lead on Johnson's third TD pass to Taylor, a 39-yarder, and Rob Gillespie's 2-yard TD run. Michigan State rallied to tie the score at 34 early in the fourth quarter as Burke found Burress alone in the end zone for a 30-yard completion and hit Gari Scott for the two-point conversion. Lloyd Clemons' 8-yard run on third-and-2 set up Edinger's game-winning kick from the Florida 22.

Cory Ross rushed for a career-high 138 yards and two scores to lead No. 22 Nebraska to a 17-3 victory over Michigan State in the 2003 MasterCard Alamo Bowl. Ross carried the ball seven times for 37 yards on Nebraska's opening drive to set up David Dyches' 29-yard field goal as the Cornhuskers took a 3-0 lead with 8:19 left in the first quarter. Michigan State answered with a 10-play, 48-yard drive, with Jeff Smoker completing five-of-six passes for 43 yards, and pulled even on a 46-yard field goal by Dave Rayner with 3:53 remaining in the first quarter. Jammal Lord's 58-yard completion to Isaiah Fluellen early in the second quarter gave the Cornhuskers first-and-goal at the MSU 6. Two plays later, Ross scored on a 2-yard run as Nebraska jumped out to a 10-3 lead with 13:17 left in the first half. Late in the second quarter, Lord broke free for a 66-yard gain to the MSU 14. Two plays later, Ross raced 6 yards for a touchdown as the Cornhuskers built a 17-3 lead with 3:20 to play in the first half. The Spartan defense bounced back in the second half, allowing only 106 total yards while holding Nebraska scoreless. Michigan State's offense came to life midway through the fourth quarter. Smoker completed five-straight passes for 39 yards and Tyrell Dortch gained 16 yards on two running plays as the Spartans marched to the Cornhusker 17. After a personal-foul penalty pushed the Spartans back 15 yards, Pat Ricketts ended the scoring threat when he picked off Smoker's throw intended for Aaron Alexander at the Nebraska 24. The Cornhuskers limited Michigan State to a season-low 174 total yards – nearly 210 yards below its season average. Nebraska sacked Smoker five times for 37 yards and forced three interceptions.

PRESIDENT LOU ANNA K. SIMON

Lou Anna K. Simon is the 20th president of Michigan State University, leading the way to Advancing Knowledge and Transforming Lives. She served as provost and vice president for academic affairs from 1993-2004, interim president in 2003 and was appointed president by the MSU Board of Trustees in January 2005.

President Simon has a distinguished history with MSU. After earning her doctorate in administration and higher education from MSU in 1974, she became a member of the MSU faculty and assistant director of the Office of Institutional Research (now the Office of Planning and Budgets). From there, she moved into a variety of administrative roles, including assistant provost for general academic administration during the 1980s and associate provost in the early 1990s.

Simon's commitment to the land-grant tradition of applying education in many areas, particularly in economic development and globalization, has been demonstrated on a national level through her work with her involvement as a member of the Council on Competitiveness and the Board of Directors for the National Association of State Universities and Land-Grant Colleges (NASULGC). Simon was appointed to the State of Michigan Governor's Emergency Financial Advisory Panel and she has served as a member of the Lt. Governor's Commission on Higher Education and Economic Growth (Cherry Commission). She is a member of the Michigan Strategic Economic Investment and Commercialization Board (SEIC), the Detroit Renaissance Board of Directors and locally with Prima Civitas. Furthermore, she is a member of the following global initiatives: the American Council on Education (ACE) Commission on International Initiative and the Partnership to Cut Hunger in Africa Executive Committee.

Ron Mason was introduced as the 16th athletics director in Michigan State history on Jan. 28, 2002, and assumed the leadership of the 25-sport department on July 1, 2002. Prior to moving into an administrative role, Mason spent 36 years behind the bench, including 23 seasons at Michigan State, during which he established himself as the winningest coach in college hockey history.

During Mason's five-year tenure as athletics director, State squads have captured 11 conference championships (regular season and postseason combined) and one national championship. In addition, MSU has been represented at the NCAA Championships 72 times, including Final Four/Frozen Four appearances by men's basketball (2005), women's basketball (2005), field hockey (2002 and 2004) and ice hockey (2007).

In 2006-07, 12 of MSU's 25 sports participated in NCAA Championships for the second-straight year. The ice hockey team capped an incredible postseason run by winning the program's third national championship, defeating Boston College 3-1 in the NCAA title game. With the championship, Michigan State became one of only nine schools in the country to win at least three ice hockey national titles. In addition to the national championship, both the men's and women's golf teams captured Big Ten titles and advanced to the NCAA Championships. In March, the men's and women's basketball teams extended their program record for consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances, as the men's team earned its 10th-straight bid and the women's team made its fifth-straight appearance. The overall success of the department was represented in Michigan State's jump to 34th place in the U.S. Sports Academy Directors' Cup. The department also reached another milestone by hosting the Women's NCAA Basketball Tournament First and Second Rounds at the Breslin Center, marking the first time MSU has hosted the prestigious event. East Lansing led all eight First- and Second-Round sites with a total 21,340 fans passing through the turnstiles during the three sessions.

During Mason's watch, Spartan student-athletes also have excelled in the classroom. In fall 2006, 12 teams posted a 3.0 or higher grade-point average, including 304 student-athletes who recorded a 3.0 or better for the semester. In spring 2007, student-athletes produced a cumulative GPA of 2.98, as 40 student-athletes posted a perfect 4.0 term GPA (most in program history) and a record-tying 14 sports maintained a 3.0 cumulative GPA. A total of 193 student-athletes earned Academic All-Big Ten honors during the 2006-07 academic year.

Community outreach and service also have been a priority during his tenure, with over 300 student-athletes participating in outreach activities during the 2006-07 academic year. Now in its fourth year, the outreach initiative PACT (Putting Athletes and Community Together) has reached over 45,000 area children.

Mason's vision on diversity programming has had a significant impact on the daily lives of MSU's student-athletes. MSU's Student-Athlete Multicultural Center, the first of its kind at the NCAA Division I-A level, provides quality leadership training for minority student-athletes as well as social and outreach programs.

Under Mason's leadership, the Ralph Young Fund has set all-time record highs each of the last five years, including $28.5 million for the 2006-07 fiscal year. He successfully introduced Scholarship Seating for football as well as men's and women's basketball which has generated significant funds for the athletics department. Fundraising efforts have been completed on three major athletic facility initiatives, including the Alfred Berkowitz Basketball Complex, Spartan Stadium expansion and Doug Rearick Golf Practice Facility. Significant progress also has been made towards the funding of two additional athletic facilities, including expansion of the Duffy Daugherty Football Building and the Old College Field project, which supports MSU's men's and women's soccer, baseball and softball programs. In addition, the men's and women's basketball teams will move into new locker rooms at the Breslin Center for the 2007-08 season. At a cost of $2.6 million, the privately funded locker rooms will rank among the very best in the nation.

In 2005-06, 12 sports participated in NCAA Championships. In November 2005, the women's soccer team earned its second-ever bid to the NCAA Tournament. In addition, the Spartan hockey team won its first Central Collegiate Hockey Association Tournament championship since 2001 and its 11th overall. In May 2006, the women's rowing team attained its highest NCAA finish in program history, claiming sixth place.

In 2004-05, Mason saw a school-record five teams (field hockey, men's golf, women's basketball, crew and men's soccer) capture Big Ten Conference Championships. The field hockey team, which won the regular-season title, advanced to its second Final Four in the last three years in November, while the men's soccer team captured its first-ever Big Ten title. The men's golf team won just its second Big Ten title in school history in May, while crew won its first-ever conference crown. The basketball teams became the sixth school in NCAA history to send both its men's and women's programs to the Final Four in the same year, as the women's team fell in the national title game. In addition, the women's basketball team shared the Big Ten regular-season championship with Ohio State and won the Big Ten Tournament title for the first time in school history.

In 2003-04, 17 of the 25 sports were represented at the 2003-04 NCAA Championships and the football team participated in the Alamo Bowl. In addition, the softball team captured the school's first-ever Big Ten Tournament Championship, while the field hockey squad won its second-straight Big Ten Championship and advanced to its third-straight NCAA Tournament. In addition, "The BasketBowl" – the MSU-Kentucky basketball game was played before a world-record crowd of 78,129 at Detroit's Ford Field on Dec. 13, 2003.

In 2002-03, 17 of MSU's 25 sports were represented at the NCAA Championships, including the field hockey team which advanced to the Final Four for the first time in school history. In addition, the men's basketball team moved on to the Elite Eight and the women's basketball and softball teams made the NCAA Tournament for the first time since the 1997 and 1999 seasons, respectively.

Mason finished his 36-year coaching career in 2002 with a record of 924-380-83. In 23 years at Michigan State, he posted a 635-270-69 mark. He is the only coach in college hockey history with more than 750 victories. His career highlights include an NCAA Championship at Michigan State in 1986 and an NAIA Championship with Lake Superior State in 1972. He led MSU to 17 CCHA regular-season and playoff titles and guided 23 teams to the NCAA Tournament, an all-time record. In addition, he coached 35 All-Americans and 50 former Spartans who went onto to establish careers in the National Hockey League.

In 1966, Mason began his coaching career as the first head coach at Lake Superior State, where he also served as assistant athletics director. He guided the Lakers to five NAIA Tournament appearances, including the 1972 National Championship. Three of his other teams finished as NAIA runners-up.

In 1973, he moved on to Bowling Green, establishing the Falcons as a national hockey power. In six seasons, he led Bowling Green to three CCHA regular-season titles (1976, 1978, 1979) and three playoff championships (1977, 1978, 1979). His 1977-78 squad finished third in the NCAA Tournament with an impressive 31-8 record. The following season, his BGSU squad established a then-national record with 37 wins. While at BGSU, he coached two members of the 1980 U.S. Gold Medal Olympic Hockey Team – Ken Morrow and Mark Wells.

Mason's Michigan State career began with the 1979-80 season when he replaced the legendary Amo Bessone. The seven-time CCHA Coach of the Year led the Spartans to seven regular-season league championships and 10 playoff crowns. In 2001, the conference honored Mason by renaming the CCHA playoff trophy – The Mason Cup – in recognition of his contributions to college hockey and the formation of the league as well as his success behind the bench. Mason is considered one of the "Founding Fathers" of the CCHA, as he joined Bowling Green's Jack Vivian and St. Louis University's Bill Selman in establishing a "coaches' league" in 1971.

On March 18, 1994, a win over Bowling Green established him as the winningest college hockey coach in history. In 2001-02, Mason's final campaign as the Spartan coach, he recorded his unprecedented 900th-win as a college hockey coach with a victory over Ferris State (Oct. 20, 2001).

Mason also had a first-hand perspective on one of MSU's biggest athletic endeavors, as he coached his Spartans against Michigan in front of a world-record crowd of 74,554 in an outdoor hockey game at Spartan Stadium (Oct. 6, 2001). He coached MSU's only two Hobey Baker Award winners – Kip Miller in 1990 and Ryan Miller in 2001. He also coached the first college player – Joe Murphy – to be taken first overall in the NHL Draft in 1986 by the Detroit Red Wings.

Mason served on the American Hockey Association Board of Directors from 1973-77 and is a former member of the NCAA Ice Hockey Rules Committee and NCAA Ice Hockey Championships Committee.

He is active in a number of local organizations and charities. He is very involved with Sparrow Hospital in Lansing, where he recently completed a four-year term on the Sparrow Foundation Board and has set up the Ron Mason Fund for Kids that supports the Pediatric Rehabilitation Department, which has raised nearly $675,000 since 1998. He also served as the honorary chairperson for the Children's Miracle Network, which has raised $19 million over the last 19 years, and has worked with the Coaches For Kids campaign, which has raised $5.3 million in the last seven years for a pediatrics emergency room at Sparrow Hospital. In addition, he served on the committee for the broomball game for the Legal Eagles, which benefited the Boys and Girls Club of Lansing, and spent several years on the Lansing Safety Council. Mason currently is a board member for the Lansing Chamber of Commerce.

Mason received his bachelor's degree from St. Lawrence University in 1964 and his master's degree from Pittsburgh in 1965. He was presented with an honorary doctorate from Michigan State in the spring of 2001.

For all his career accomplishments, Mason has been inducted into the Michigan Sports Hall of Fame (1994), Lake Superior Sports Hall of Fame (1996) and St. Lawrence Sports Hall of Fame (1999). In addition, the American Hockey Coaches Association honored him with the John MacInnes Award for his outstanding contributions to hockey in the spring of 2003, and he received the Hobey Baker Memorial Award Foundation's 2004 "Legend of Hockey" award in April 2004.

He is active in a number of local organizations and charities. He is very involved with Sparrow Hospital Born Jan. 14, 1940, in Blyth, Ontario, Mason and his wife Marion, have two daughters, Tracey and Cindy, and two grandsons, Tyler and Travis. An avid fisherman, Mason also enjoys golfing.

MICHIGAN STATE UNIVERSITY

The Michigan State University Office of Compliance Services is committed to a comprehensive compliance program that educates student-athletes, prospective student-athletes, institutional employees, community members and boosters about the importance of adhering to NCAA, Big Ten and institutional rules. The commitment to compliance ensures institutional control over the department of athletics. The existence of a successful compliance program depends on the willingness of coaches, administrators, staff, student-athletes and boosters to be cognizant of NCAA, Big Ten and institutional rules.

WHAT IS COMPLIANCE?

At Michigan State University, the Office of Compliance Services works within the department of athletics and the University to ensure MSU's compliance with all applicable NCAA, Big Ten and institutional rules. In doing so, the compliance office is charged with the following tasks:

- Educating administrators, coaches, staff, prospective student-athletes, current student-athletes and boosters about NCAA, Big Ten and institutional rules;
- Developing monitoring systems to ensure compliance with NCAA, Big Ten and institutional rules (e.g., recruiting, academic eligibility, financial aid, awards and benefits, amateurism and agents).
- Investigating and reporting violations of NCAA, Big Ten and institutional rules.

ARE YOU A BOOSTER?

You are a booster if you are or ever have:

- Been a member of a booster organization that supports MSU athletics (e.g., Downtown Coaches Club, Rebounders Club, Fast Break Club);
- Made any financial contributions to the athletics department (e.g., Ralph Young Fund);
- Been involved in promoting MSU's athletics program;
- Been a season-ticket holder; or
- Provided benefits to enrolled student-athletes or their relatives or friends.

You can become a booster if you provide benefits to prospects, student-athletes, their relatives or friends and any of the following statements are true:

- The relationship between the athlete (or parents of the athlete) and the individual providing the benefits developed as a result of the athlete's participation in athletics or their reputation as an athlete;
- The relationship began only after the athlete become a prospect;
- The relationship began only after the athlete had achieved notoriety due to his or her athletic ability or reputation;
- The pattern of benefits increased after the athlete attained notoriety as a talented athlete.

ONCE A BOOSTER ALWAYS A BOOSTER

Once an individual is identified as a booster, the person retains that identity FOREVER! This is true even if the individual no longer contributes to, or is involved with MSU's athletics program.

WHO IS A PROSPECTIVE STUDENT-ATHLETE?

A prospective student-athlete (prospect) is a student who has started classes for the ninth grade. Student-athletes enrolled in preparatory schools and two-year colleges are also considered prospects. An individual remains a prospect even after he/she signs a National Letter of Intent.

THE RECRUITING DO'S AND DON'T'S

Only MSU coaches may be involved in the recruiting process. Boosters MAY NOT make any recruiting contacts with prospective student-athletes. Boosters are prohibited from the following:

- DO NOT telephone, write or make in-person contact with a prospect for recruiting purposes.
- DO NOT contact a prospect's coach, principal or counselor in an attempt to evaluate the prospect.
- DO NOT become involved in making arrangements for a prospect, the prospect's relatives or friends to receive money or financial aid of any kind.
- DO NOT visit a prospect's school to acquire films or transcripts in an attempt to evaluate the prospect's academic or athletics eligibility.
- DO NOT have contact with a prospect, their relatives or friends during any of their visits to MSU's campus.
- DO NOT contact student-athletes enrolled in other four-year institutions regarding the possibility of transferring to MSU.

Even though there are many rules prohibiting your involvement with prospects and the recruiting process, as a booster you are permitted to do the following:

- Notify MSU coaching staff about noteworthy prospects in your area.
- Attend a prospect's athletics event on your own initiative, provided no contact with the prospect, the prospect's parents or coach occurs.
- Continue existing friendships, provided solicitation of a prospect's enrollment does not occur.

WHAT IS AN EXTRA BENEFIT?

An extra benefit is any special arrangement by a MSU employee or booster to provide a prospect, student-athlete or their relatives or friends a benefit not expressly authorized by the NCAA. Examples of impermissible benefits include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Gifts of cash, clothing, equipment or any other tangible item;
- A special discount, payment arrangement or credit on any purchase or service;
- Loan of money or cosigning of loans;
- A vehicle, use of a vehicle, or any transportation expenses;
- Free or reduced-cost services, purchases or rentals;
- Entertainment on- or off-campus; or
- Free or reduced-cost rent or housing.

WHAT ARE THE CONSEQUENCES?

MSU is responsible for the actions of its boosters. If a booster provides an impermissible benefit to a prospect, student-athlete, their relatives or friends, MSU may be subject to penalties from the NCAA and Big Ten Conference. When a violation occurs, regardless of intention, it can:

- Jeopardize the eligibility of prospective and current student-athletes;
- Result in the MSU athletics program being penalized by the NCAA and/or Big Ten Conference; and
- Cause you to lose benefits or privileges associated with the athletics department (i.e., booster club membership, ticket privileges).

QUESTIONS?

The above information is a brief overview of compliance and rules pertaining to boosters and their interactions with prospective student-athletes. If you have any questions about any NCAA, Big Ten or institutional rules, please contact the Office of Compliance Services at (517) 432-5510. For more information on compliance and boosters, please visit the Office of Compliance Services' web site at www.msu.edu/user/msuncaal/.

Spartan Stadium is in its 84th season as home to Michigan State football. Since its opening in 1923, Michigan State has won nearly 69 percent of its games played in Spartan Stadium.

In 2005, the natural grass playing surface in Spartan Stadium earned Field of the Year honors from the Sports Turf Managers Association (STMA).

Spartan Stadium represents a tribute to Michigan State's football past and a vote of confidence in its future. A $64 million expansion project completed prior to the start of the 2005 football season features the addition of nearly 3,000 seats, including 24 suites and a 193-seat press box, bringing the current stadium capacity to 75,005. "The Spartan" statue has been relocated to the atrium of the new structure. The 200,000-square-foot addition also houses the MSU Alumni Association, University Development and other units. The MSU Board of Trustees approved the major addition and expansion project of Spartan Stadium in September 2003.

Here's a quick look at some Spartan Stadium construction milestones:

- Dec. 22, 2003 – Groundbreaking begins at construction site.
- May 7, 2004 – Erection of steel framework begins.
- July 30, 2004 – Topping-out ceremony held as the uppermost steel beam is lifted into place.
- Nov. 13, 2004 – Press box demolition begins just 13 hours after Michigan State concluded its 2004 home schedule against Wisconsin.
- Aug. 1, 2005 – The 20-month construction project was completed.

Barton Malow/Clark served as the construction manager for the Spartan Stadium expansion project, with HNTB providing architectural services.

Prior to the 2002 season, ESPN.com's Mel Kiper Jr. ranked Spartan Stadium No. 8 on his list of the nation's most scenic venues.

Natural grass returned to Spartan Stadium in 2002 after a 33-year absence, with the installation of a modular field. The new playing surface, planted in May of 2001 at MSU's Hancock Turfgrass Research Center, is comprised of a blend of nine varieties of Kentucky bluegrass. The original switch from natural grass to artificial turf came in time for the 1969 season.

Since 1957, capacity crowds have attended 144 games in Spartan Stadium, including the single-game record 80,401 fans who witnessed MSU's 20-19 loss to top-ranked Notre Dame on Sept. 22, 1990. The Spartans have ranked among the NCAA's top 25 in attendance each of the last 51 seasons, including 21st in 2006, averaging 70,819 fans per game.

Season-ticket sales have topped the 60,000 mark five times in Spartan football history, with an all-time record 61,479 season tickets purchased in 2000.

A series of projects paralleling the Spartans' rise to national football prominence enlarged the steel-and-concrete facility from its original 14,000 seats in 1923 to its present size in 1957.

The first came in 1935, the year in which the stadium was officially named Macklin Field, boosting the capacity to 26,000. The 1948 enlargement raised the total to 51,000.

After 9,000 new seats upped the capacity to 60,000 in 1956, the upper decks were added to the east and west stands in 1957, bringing the capacity to 76,000. It also became Spartan Stadium that year. Renovations during the summer of 1994 improved sightlines and comfort for fans, while reducing the capacity to its current 72,027.

On Oct. 6, 2001, Spartan Stadium added another chapter to its storied history as a world-record crowd of 74,554 attended the MSU-Michigan outdoor hockey game.

Prior to the 1998 season, a Mitsubishi Diamond Vision was installed in the south end zone and a new scoreboard and black and white message board were added to the north end zone. The CRT video display measures 21 feet x 27 feet and it is operated from a digital production control room in the Breslin Center. The video display board shows live game action, replays and special features. In addition, a concert-quality 50,000-watt sound system was installed.

In 1998, Spartan Stadium celebrated its 75th anniversary plus it reached another milestone that season when it played host to its 400th game, a 29-5 MSU victory over Northwestern on Oct. 31.

With its 49-14 victory over No. 4 Wisconsin in the 2004 home finale, Michigan State recorded its 300th win in Spartan Stadium. Michigan State has compiled a 305-136-13 record (.686) since taking up residency in Spartan Stadium (formerly Macklin Field) in 1923. The Spartans have gone undefeated at home 16 times since the stadium opened, including a perfect 6-0 mark in 1999. It marked MSU's first undefeated home record since 1966 (5-0-1) and its first unbeaten and untied home slate since 1965 (5-0-0).

In addition, Michigan State has suffered only one home loss during a season 27 times. Only nine times in the history of the stadium have the Spartans experienced a losing record at home.

Michigan State's longest home winning streak is 19 games from Oct. 14, 1950, through Nov. 21, 1953.

THE NICKNAME

In 1926, Michigan State's first southern baseball training tour provided the setting for the birth of the "Spartan" nickname.

It all came about when a Lansing sportswriter imposed the silent treatment on a contest-winning nickname and substituted his own choice, the name that has lasted through the years.

In 1925, Michigan State College replaced the name Michigan Agricultural College. The college sponsored a contest to select a nickname to replace "Aggies" and picked "The Michigan Staters."

George S. Alderton, then sports editor of the Lansing State Journal, decided the name was too cumbersome for newspaper writing and vowed to find a better one. Alderton contacted Jim Hasselman of Information Services to see if entries still remained from the contest. When informed that they still existed, Alderton ran across the entry name of "Spartans" and then decided that was the choice. Unfortunately, Alderton forgot to write down who submitted that particular entry, so that part of the story remains a mystery.

Rewriting game accounts supplied by Perry Fremont, a catcher on the squad, Alderton first used the name sparingly and then ventured into the headlines with it. (Incidentally, after two days of spelling the name incorrectly with an "o", Mr. Alderton changed it to Spartan on a tip from a close friend.) Dale Stafford, a sports writer for the Lansing Capitol News, a rival of the State Journal, picked up the name for his paper after a couple of days. Alderton called Stafford and suggested that he might want to join the Spartan parade and he did.

As Mr. Alderton explains: "No student, alumnus or college official had called up the editor to complain about our audacity in giving the old school a new name, so we ventured into headlines with it. Happily for the experiment, the name took. It began appearing in other newspapers and when the student publication used it, that clinched it."

SPARTY

"The Spartan" statue, designed and produced by MSU assistant art professor Leonard D. Jungwirth, has a permanent home inside the atrium of the Spartan Stadium tower. The 9-foot-7 ceramic figure weighs approximately 6,600 pounds, including its base. In 2005, the sculpture was relocated to protect it from the elements.

"The Spartan" was dedicated on June 9, 1945, at the intersection of Red Cedar Road, Kalamazoo Street and Chestnut Road. Popularly known as "Sparty," the statue remains one of the favorite photo subjects of campus visitors.

Last fall, an exact replica of the original terra cotta sculpture – now cast in bronze – took up residency on the plaza located at the north end of Demonstration Hall Field. The molds for the bronze statue were made from the original sculpture. The new statue was cast in bronze at the Artworks Foundry in Berkeley, Calif.

As part of MSU's sesquicentennial celebration, the bronze "Sparty" was dedicated on Oct. 8, 2005.

Donors contributed approximately $500,000 to pay for all work related to the new sculpture, including the plaza.

GREEN & WHITE

Details are sketchy as to when Michigan State athletic teams officially began using the school colors green and white. But records of the Athletic Association of the then Michigan Agricultural College show that on April 11, 1899, the organization took steps toward adoption of a green monogram, "to be worn only by athletes who subsequently take part in intercollegiate events."

It is generally thought the colors came into wide use with the arrival in 1903 of Chester L. Brewer as the school's first full-time director of athletics. Brewer also coached the Spartan football, basketball, baseball and track teams, the only varsity units in existence at the time.

SPARTY MASCOT

Michigan State's beloved Sparty has won three national championships in the last four years at the Universal Cheer Association's mascot competition at Walt Disney World in Orlando, Fla.

In January 2004, Sparty became the first Big Ten mascot to claim the national title, and in 2005, he defended his national championship, beating Goldy Gopher and Bucky Badger in the finals. After finishing third in the 2006 competition, Sparty reclaimed the national championship in 2007.

Made of hi-tech materials, including a vinyl chest plate and fiberglass molds like the ones used for making Muppets, the seven-foot costume weighs in at 40 pounds, allowing enough flexibility for playful gestures and animation. Sparty is a far cry from the many papier-mache heads that have popped up since the 1950's, mostly from fraternity efforts. The first official one apparently debuted in 1955 courtesy of Theta Xi.

Other versions were introduced from time to time. In 1984, Sigma Phi Epsilon introduced the first "gruff" head--sporting the unshaven look that still adorns many sweatshirts and jackets.

By contrast, the current Sparty costume is a state-of-the-art, full-bodied uniform that costs $12,000.

Today six students--their identities kept private--take turns being Sparty with one of three costumes. Because of the costume size, Sparty aspirants must be between 5-10 and 6-2 in height. Candidates who fit the physical needs are chosen after a hands-on process that includes tryouts and interviews.

The Sparty Mascot Program is run and funded by the Student Alumni Foundation.

MSU FIGHT SONG

*On the banks of the Red Cedar,
There's a school that's known to all;
Its specialty is winning,
And those Spartans play good ball;
Spartan teams are never beaten,
All through the game they'll fight;
Fight for the only colors,
Green and White.
Go right through for MSU,
Watch the points keep growing.
Spartan teams are bound to win,
They're fighting with a vim.
Rah! Rah! Rah!
See their team is weakening,
We're going to win this game.
Fight! Fight! Rah! Team, Fight!
Victory for MSU.*
